Sacred Heart Academy

Hempstead, Long Island, New York

Sacred Heart •

The serene Seminary surroundings . . .

Springtime, dogwood and the Seminary path.

Numbered among the landmarks of Hempstead is our own Sacred Heart Academy. Starting from the busy corner of Fulton and Cathedral we would see the Seminary and recall the cute little plays they presented for us. Walking north on Cathedral Avenue, we would pass the Academy itself. Beyond the second driveway, we see the Convent and we are reminded of our noontime visits to the Chapel . . . and our Senior Prom when we introduced our dates to the Sisters and visited the Blessed Sacrament before leaving for Guy Lombardo's. Then there is the music house — The Little White House.

All are landmarks in our memories.

“Ad Jesum

Per Mariam”

Superior General

Reverend Mother Immaculate Maria

Reverend Mother Immaculata Maria, the new Superior General of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, will endeavor to carry on the work so far advanced by her predecessors. Although Reverend Mother may be new to many she will find a place in the hearts of all the girls at Sacred Heart.

The great concern of the diocesan leaders for Catholic education has been the inspiration of our teachers and their leaders. The influence of these teachers cannot be measured solely by spiritual rewards. The foundation stone of Catholic education is the consecrated service, the ability, and the self sacrifice of those who staff our schools on every level.

We may pray fervently that God will guide Reverend Mother so that she will always be to us and to those who follow us an unwavering light which will guide us along the ways of truth, wisdom, righteousness, and virtue.

Our Principal . . . Reverend Sister M. Alonzo

*T*he hands of Sacred Heart's clock go 'round and 'round, marking the time as it flies by. Students enter and students leave; teachers come and teachers go. Yet through it all there is one familiar, kindly face ever present at Sacred Heart. This belongs, of course, to our Sister Alonzo, whose name seems practically synonymous with Sacred Heart. Her four years of service here have produced fruitful and most edifying results which are very evident in the quality of character in her girls, past and present. We thank you, Sister, for everything.

During her four years at Sacred Heart Academy, each girl begins to realize that Religion is the central point of her life. Her faith is deepened and strengthened by supervised study and discussion in all aspects of her religion. She learns more of Christ's life, the Sacraments, Church History, and Papal Encyclicals. Her practical knowledge is increased and she soon finds herself capable of protecting and defending her Faith.

To live one's Faith is the ultimate goal of each religious course. After the completion of four years at S. H. A. each girl looks forward to leading an exemplary life and converting people through her practical Catholic living.

Music is an important phase of everyone's education and it is taken quite seriously at Sacred Heart. The Freshmen and Sophomores learn the rudiments of reading and writing music as well as summaries of the important operas and the lives of composers. If a girl wishes to pursue her studies as a music major, she can learn the details of theory and composition.

We have the opportunity to apply all the essentials of the music we have learned each Friday during the choral periods.

This year a new feature was added to round out our cultural background. The girls were presented with the opportunity to attend the opera Tosca at student rates. As a result, a new door to musical entertainment was opened to stay.

Scientists R. Killeen, M. Kavanagh, C. Maccaro, R. Lane, A. Hilpman, L. Husch, E. Maher, R. Knowles try a new experiment.

Ask any Freshman the question, "What is Biology?" and she will undoubtedly replay that "Biology is the study of all living things."

In the Biology lab the Freshmen are given a solid foundation for their future in science under the expert teaching of Sister Catherine Therese and Sister Philothea.

Through the unforgettable study of the amoeba and protoza they learn to understand even the simplest of God's creatures.

Thus the student becomes more interested in science and begins to think more keenly and soon develops a sense of perception.

Freshmen III

Art is a poem without words

Checking the attendance is somewhat a pleasure to T. Norwood, A. Mulligan, M. McKenna, D. O'Donnell.

Busily helping Sister are J. Norwood, C. Muller, A. Muhs, S. Paquette, C. McSweeney, J. O'Grady, J. Phillips, A. Paternoster, A. McIlray, K. Pound.

Selecting a subject is always a pleasure for R. Morrow, M. Murphy, P. McMahon, M. McNamara, P. Quest, E. Schroeder, J. C'Rourke, D. Mulhearn.

R. Moody, K. Meyer, S. Nietman, K. Podley, R. McGloin, M. Phillips, M. Mulholand, P. Murphy, M. Oberer, H. Meyer brush up on the lives of the great artists.

Budding Rembrandts M. Porrior, M. O'Donnell, M. O'Donnell, M. O'Sullivan, A. McDonald, M. Meyer, G. McInerney, K. McGloin, will gladly paint your portrait.

The process of adding a few dabs of paint to a rough sketch might be mere routine to one so unfortunate as not to have been instructed by Sister Maria Jude.

As a steady stream of Freshmen, Sophomores, and Art Majors flows through the Art Room daily, it leaves behind a maze of art plates, some of which are to adorn the Art Room, while others are to be doomed to a dismal life within an art envelope.

But Art is a subject which is not intended to be reserved for the exceptionally talented — indeed — it is a subject which gives to all an increasing appreciation for things artistic.

Freshmen IV

P. J. builds the sound body for the sound mind

All set for an exciting game of tennis are F. Scotti, J. Reilly, M. Sullivan, J. Seaman.

Exercise as the key to a physically fit body is found out by P. Yanelli, D. Williams, J. Wren, C. Edwards, P. Wood, K. Weiss, J. Zaino, P. Whalen, C. Westman.

Practice makes perfect is the main idea in the minds of D. Seminara, A. Shaughnessy, P. Seedlick, N. Schultz, N. Siech, E. Schneck, L. Selesnick, M. Sigriff, M. Singer.

A pyramid is formed by B. Standing, M. Van Loan, S. Van Horn, G. Trojan, R. Swords, T. Steiner, K. Thomas.

M. Ryf, B. Ruddy, M. Ryan, B. Scherr, K. Schlessinger, E. Reinhardt, L. Reinhardt, L. Saccio, M. Risch, D. Rombach hope the point is gained.

Physical training, or gym, as it is commonly termed, proves to be a pleasant break from our daily studies. However the exercise is not all in vain, for gym contributes to our physical well-being.

Basketballs, ping pong balls, and volleyballs can be seen flying or rolling across the gym floor when the cold months confine athletics to the gymnasium.

But as soon as Spring rolls around, there is no limit to the distance a softball, a volleyball or dodgeball, can go, since we are fortunate to be equipped with outdoor courts too.

Indeed, our gym classes prove that athletics are not reserved for the most athletic.

Freshmen V

History is the life of peoples and humanity

M. McCarthy, B. Meehan, J. Zukas, S. Starace find History an enjoyable subject.

Sophomores I

Whether it be Social Studies, World History, or American History, a student at Sacred Heart Academy cannot escape a course in history, no matter which academic level he reaches.

There is not one phase of this subject which is neglected, for with the aid of panel discussions, film strips, current newspapers and map study, any deficit which may be left by our numerous textbooks is efficiently filled.

And so when the student reaches the end of her fourth year, she is prepared to challenge even Mr. Charles VanDoren in the field of History.

Locating the various countries are very interesting to B. McCann, L. Carr, D. Clancy, B. Wooded, R. Ryan, L. Trentalange, S. Lawler.

W. Welsh, C. Campo, M. Keilman, B. O'Meara, P. Heart, C. Covaleski, A. DeNio, E. Going, M. Howell review their History for exams.

Listening attentively to Sisters explanation are V. Heart, T. Anderson, B. McGinn, B. McGuire, L. McMullen, M. Stenger, K. Meany, U. Driscoll, C. Jander.

K. Tracy, P. Chelius, A. Sheehan, R. Torma, M. Smith, K. Ranken, S. Langle, B. Re, E. Rebman, M. Byrnes, J. O'Connor locate some of the troubled countries of the world.

Mathematics possesses not only truth but beauty

E. Reddington, S. Dunnan, V. Maggia, E. Reisert review the basic rules in Geometry.

Sophomores II

"One and one is . . . er . . . two." And so another budding mathematician receives her foundation at Sacred Heart Academy.

By the time a girl reaches Senior year, she is well acquainted with "X" the famous unknown quantity. In Freshmen year and elementary algebra class, we see the letter taking the places of a brand of coffee in a mixture problem. As Sophomores and geometricians X equaled X by identity. Then in Senior year, wading through intermediate algebra, we find that X in a quadratic can have three values.

But when you get right down to it, Math is a valuable treasure that will carry you a long way after highschool years have gone by. Why think of all the riddles you can solve!

Studying the proposition of the day are M. Byrnes, M. Faughan, B. Dunne, D. Barker, T. Cahill, D. DeFranco, K. Carlsson, M. Falco, M. Christman and M. Flament.

K. Schleuter, D. Stout, R. Rush, B. Tomason, P. Roll, Z. Versaggi, B. Wilde, R. Yallon, G. Sickler, M. Zapki find that board work is an essential part of study.

*Dear Gail,
congratulations on your first year and good luck always Janet*

Construction of the various angles is undertaken by J. Martin, P. Lucas, S. McCloskey, A. Rattigan, J. Reilly, N. Rankert, S. Maher and J. Lavery.

Reviewing for the next test are M. Lane, J. Kennedy, J. Lamb, J. Greco, D. Genova, B. Forget, C. Lambert, E. Hoesse, J. Kurtzner, and R. Joerg.

Love, Lucy*

Sophomores III

To help French students learn their idioms better, a project was started among the girls whereby each one received the name of a French girl for a trans-Atlantic correspondent. This idea worked out very well for many of our girls have charming friends across the ocean whom they one day hope to meet.

The study of the French language is augmented by other study aids. Movies, newspapers and magazines bring us up to date on present day customs in France. The study of French background is stressed so that our girls can associate composers, authors and painters with the French heritage. A final phase of our course is the reading of adapted French short stories. This helps us to recognize the different French literary forms.

Locating a section of France is easy for M. Miller, R. Dellomo, L. O'Connor, M. Sharkey, J. Za-rembo, P. Raynor, B. Hall, P.
Wallace, E. Callahan, P. Balinski.

V. Bottone, L. Kost, F. DiMuccio, A. Scholl, B. Swartz, M. Cassidy, M. Cuite, J. Chesire looking at interesting pictures of France.

Board work helps M. Nadolmy, J. DeRoberti, B. Lee, A. Wilander, M. Staufenberg, P. Allen, C. Kozak, P. Phillips, E. Murdock, G. Berger learn more about the French language.

Showing off their fine handiwork are N. Lenihan, J. Lartique, M. Terrance, C. Delaney, J. Master-son, C. Provst, P. Tart, G. Maher, C. Zoha, K. Godesky, C. Hoadly.

Dancing is one of the more beautiful arts

The big decision rests with A. Crowley, J. Gallagher, J. Guerin, and J. Doonan.

Sophomores IV

"Slow, slow, quick, quick, slow. Slow, slow, quick, quick, slow . . ." And so the transformation from gangling freshman into lightfooted senior was made. Now as we look back on dancing class, we see not only Miss Bellon's versatile program, which always succeeded in breaking up the dull routine of studies, but we can also appreciate the poise and sense of propriety with which every Sacred Heart graduate takes her place in the social whirl.

C. Municino, M. Purdy, J. Quaresima, R. O'Regan, V. O'Donnell, M. Quinn, and M. Straub demonstrate their square dance skills.

Ballroom dancing is perfected by C. Mumma C. Moran, S. McCormick, J. McManus, L. Maher, A. Kraemer, C. McCrory, J. Connelly, S. James and A. Johnston.

G. Hayes, J. Denker, B. Filler, S. Galke, E. Englert, F. Enstras-ser, C. Evans prepare for an informal bunny hop.

Soft shoe dancing is done by P. Callahan, J. Connelly, C. Barrett, N. Boehmke, J. Brennan, T. Browne, M. Hallen, M. Coughlin, D. Clarke and S. Anziano.

Home Economics is the right road to home-making

Amusing plans are made by A. Fox, P. Dugan, D. Flood, and B. O'Connor.

Sophomores V

For those students who are interested in domestic science, an excellent course in Home Economics, is given under the supervision of Sister Martha Michaela.

During Sister's absence this year, the useful arts, including sewing, cooking and interior decorating, were taught to eager students by Mrs. O'Rourke. Also included in this course is dressmaking, a craft which the girls find particularly helpful in filling the deficit in their wardrobes.

This course is designed to help the home-maker of tomorrow develop her domestic skills, while enjoying the many modern facilities of the fully equipped domestic science room.

C. Cameron, M. DeSocio, I. Brown, P. Boyle, M. Coppo, M. DiMaria, M. Clark and P. Dixon tidy up after an interesting lesson.

More domestic skills are learned by N. Bible, P. Capibianco, J. Connelly, P. Cleary, L. Emmerick, M. Fischer, C. Del Re, and N. Boyce.

R. MacDonald, J. Korzinski, E. Robertson, H. Hanley, M. Hempel, A. Harrison, M. Gorman, D. Duggan, H. O'Sullivan hope to be successful in following this pattern.

A sewing machine becomes a friendly instrument to B. Mancuso, C. Mealia, G. Gavigan, M. Ledwith, J. Duffy, B. Miller, M. Kane, C. Kasold, C. Loughman, C. Lenihan.

Chemistry provides an anthology of the universe

D. Newell, C. Taylor, P. May and C. Puls, class officers, discuss some new chemical developments.

Chemistry certainly interests and amuses M. Williams, E. Sullivan, P. Koenig, V. Cummings,
S. Petrizzo, J. Haverty, A. Kelly,
M. Samuelson, D. Sieck, S. O'-
Neil and H. Dunn.

M. Lynch, M. O'Loughlin V.
Cummings, E. Battone, A. Kramer, N. Dodd, M. Wolf, L.
Buros, P. Connelly, H. Dunn,
E. Niessen, C. Grac, M. Gillespie and J. Lamb quietly wait before starting another experiment.

New discoveries fascinate A. Rottkamp, L. McFeeley, C. Grac, M. Nelson, M. McGarry, J. Lamb and M. Gillespie.

What do A. Cote, C. Birney, P. Genevich, A. Gannon, R. Capasso, E. Graves, J. Burke, P. Winship, and M. Godesky so anxiously await?

To be a part of the world of test tubes and bunsen burners is the dream of the Sophomore and the reality of the Junior. And the reality of Chemistry is soon discovered during the "lab" period as this same Junior stands proudly before a crystallizing solution of potassium iodide, admiring this experiment as "her very own."

Just as oxygen is found both free and combined in nature; the amateur chemist is found both intrigued and involved in that science of matter. Yes, she is intrigued by the vast number of chemical reactions which she must understand, and is ultimately involved in the process of understanding them.

Latin is a part of the Sacred Heart curriculum for many reasons. First, it gives the student an excellent foundation for English vocabulary since most of our words are composed of Latin roots, prefixes or suffixes. Then too, the study of the men who ruled Rome at the time when she was supreme, provides us with an interesting cross-section of history. Culturally speaking, the Latin classics enrich the student with the beauty of their construction and rhythm. Finally, we know that the study of the language trains the mind to be alert.

In addition to translations of the works of Caesar and Cicero, the third year students present a play based on Roman customs which is not only educational but entertaining.

R. Murphy, P. Woodley, L. Strittmatter, K. Kladt, J. Stensom, E. Klatz, E. Quinn, A. O'Neil and R. McCratty make a last minute check before handing in their papers.

It might be said that a lady's intelligence can be rated by the perfection of her English. Her ability to spell correctly, the extent of her vocabulary and the propriety of her grammar are all points which serve in her favor or disfavor. At Sacred Heart, these fine points are developed in each girl during her four years.

Although young girls do not appreciate it now, the most important part of their English course is the Oral Topics period. This above all else is the single factor which enables a young lady to take her place eloquently in the busy world. A year's oral topics is culminated by the Archbishop's Public Speaking Contest. The rules permit anyone to participate if his talk is original.

Library Science gives us a working knowledge of books

Checking through the card catalogue are G. Gdula, R. Scott, and J. Moore.

Sitting — M. Schmidt — Left to Right — C. Sadd, V. Waugh, C. Robertson, P. Sheridan, E. Schoepfer, N. Riley look up maps of the world.

M. Regan, C. Kujath, A. Meany, C. Healion, M. Peterka, P. Martin, K. Keahan, P. Price, M. Gandia, D. Quinn, N. Redmond, are doing reference work in the library.

Spending a few spare minutes in the library are J. Hart, P. Hilpman, M. Hoffman, K. Galan, Seated — L. Giesler, H. Fulam.

Waiting to take out books from the library are A. Gaffney, K. Doyle, C. Buckley, J. Engle, S. Allen, J. Agresta, E. Carey, L. Costalano.

Library Science is a course which every student looks back upon with gratitude. College work naturally encompasses a great deal of library work. Hence, there is a definite need for an exact knowledge of library tools.

Sister Grace Josephine, librarian, concentrates her program on familiarization with the Dewey Decimal System and the common reference books. The girls are encouraged to consult a variety of literature for private reading.

The acquisition of library skills would be an impossible task were it not for our complete library. Our Library Science course acquaints its students with all the worthwhile newspapers in the New York area. The wide selection of good magazines trains the student to be a discriminating reader no matter what type of periodical she prefers.

J. Brennan, S. Gonsalaes, B. Ferrara, M. Bono look up the colleges of their choice.

J. Martiello, E. Elias, K. Brady, T. Sheehan read about career possibilities.

G. Boyle, C. Johnson, V. Straub, M. Delacann, B. Deleso, H. Hinchman, M. A. Hunter, P. Craddock, M. Mannion, P. Hess, plan for their future.

P. Saddler, J. Grossman, M. J. Lanzoron, I. Carney, J. Boekmde, V. McSherry, B. Lorenz, M. Bourgeois, check through Sister's files.

C. Quigley, R. D'Ascoli, C. Figliozi, M. Holland, M. A. Polumbo, G. Delaney, E. Erhardt, E. Fitzsimmons, A. Mallen, C. Wren, preview the results of their aptitude tests.

The all-important question of "To be or what to be?" is given without reserve to Sister Mary Ulick for a solution.

And so Sister sets to work, armed only with the results of the personality tests which were taken toward the end of our Junior year and an intricate assortment of college and business school catalogues.

As each Senior enters Room 304 for her interview, she is surprised to discover that Sister seems to know quite a bit about her. And the most surprising discovery is that Sister's plan for her vocation is very smiliar to the career which she had been dreaming about.

And so this same Senior leaves the Guidance Room, confident and hopeful for what the future has in store her.

Margaret Roeder Axel

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Student Council 4; Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Tennis Club 4; Red Cross 2,3,4.

"And who doesn't love to eat?" was Margo's reply as she made her way to Jerry's every afternoon after school. We hear her summers in Bayville were enviable indeed.

Jeanne Marie Allen

Our Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 3,4; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Photography Club 3; Hostel Club 2; Tennis Club 3.

With a brother around and six little sisters to do the chores, Jean had an easy time for four years. So they say, but as S.H.L. president traffic duties added many a grey hair to her lovely coiffure.

Diane Carol Androvic

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 3,4; Library Club 4; Hostel Club 1,2.

"Music, maestro," reminds us all that Diane, our Chopin in disguise, is ready to entertain us. Vivacious and earnest, she readily combines dancing and music to make a perfect twosome.

Nancy Anne Aneser

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Student Council 4; Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Athletic Association 4; Hostel Club 2.

Could it be from the countless oranges Nancy eats that she gets her lovely complexion? As president of the Athletic Association Nancy has shown her ability to lead as well as to follow.

Joyce Carol Antizzo

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Legion of Mary 1,2; Library Club 4; Photography Club 4.

Certainly by now all Long Islanders sing the praises of Joyce, the chocolate bar champion of the Seniors. We are all grateful to Saint Joseph of the Woods, in Monticello for this Junior addition.

Louise Antoinette Argurio

Saint Catherine of Sienna, Franklin Square

Legion of Mary 4; Tennis Club 4.

The original potpourri of ravioli and horseback riding, easily give us an idea of the versatility of Louise. This petite miss, our Bubble Gum Queen, came to S.H.A. in her Junior year.

Margaret Judith Badum

Saint Gregory the Great, Bellerose

Student Council 4; Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Glee Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

Beneath that calm exterior is the mind of a math champ. As president of French Club and treasurer of her Senior Class, Margs seems to have the happy facility for being elected to office.

Mary Patricia Bauer

Saint Pascal Baylon, Saint Albans

Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 4; French Club 4.

This "Junior" addition to the class of '57 will long be remembered for her hay fever pills, great sense of humor, and willingness to help out in any difficulty. Tho' quiet and demure, her presence was a needed complement for us all!

Andrea Margaret Biggin

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 2,3,4; Hostel Club 2,3; Tennis Club 2.

A winsome wit and a friendly face aptly describe Andi, the Secretary of the Legion of Mary. Her sincere and calm manner will always be remembered, together with her incomparable willingness to work.

Barbara Ann Blass

Our Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Student Council 2,4; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Art Club 2,4; Hostel Club 2,4; French Club 3,4; Cordette 3,4.

Calm, collected, and cheerful in face of the most harrowing experience is our Bonnie. But why dwell on these qualities when it is for her cheery and ever present good nature that we are all so fond of her!

Patricia Ann Boland

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Student Council 1; Mission Club 1,2,4; Library Club 1,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Photography Club 3; Hostel Club 1,2; Tennis Club 1,2.

Pat, an example of neatness personified, is one of the more quiet girls at Sacred Heart. Sweet and sincere Pat attracts many friends. Like most Sacred Heart girls Pat loves to dance and drive.

Carol Ann Louise Bory

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Student Council 3; Mission Club 1,2,4; C.C.C. 2; Glee Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 4; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Tennis Club 2,3,4.

Carol, a complete extrovert, is intensely interested in people. Fun to be with, a friend to all, and a zealous martinet for the general benefit of S.H.A. Carol takes her work and responsibility conscientiously.

Louise Marguerite Bruno

Notre Dame, New Hyde Park

Mission Club 2; Legion of Mary 4; Photography Club 3; Hostel Club 2.

Louise protests that her job in the Catskills is very easy even though she has trouble staying awake. Should anyone ask Louise what her hobbies are, she would reply, roller skating, swimming and collecting records.

Patricia Mary Burton

Saint Boniface, Elmont

Legion of Mary 2,3,4; Cordette 3; Ex-Corde 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 2,4; Athletics 4; Tennis 3,4; Hostel 2,3,4.

Pert, petite Pat, with her unforgettable laugh, has an answer for almost any question, whether on French or in defense of her Dodgers. Instilled with a school spirit few can equal, her enthusiasm covers the breach between bowling and Broadway shows.

Anne Theresa Callahan

Saint Christopher, Baldwin

Mission Club 1,2,4; Legion of Mary 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Silhouettes 2,3; Hostel Club 2,3; Tennis Club 2.

Those dances at Saint Agnes interested this charming and animated blonde. Her long kempt hair and her cherubic face will make her one of the most wanted nurses in Saint Alban's Hospital.

Mary Ann Kathryn Caolo

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Mission Club 1,4; Tablet 3; C.C.C. 3; Cordette 4; Glee Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

At each Chaminade Football game we can always find Mary Ann bundled in warm blankets and eagerly cheering her team. Without Mary Ann, our teenage fashion consultant, many would be at a loss for the latest fashions.

Carolyn Beatrice Capezza

Saint Hedwig, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 3,4.

Between late buses and Brooklyn weekends, our blonde gourmet finds time to introduce us to many Italian delicacies. Many wonder how she has gained both this knowledge and her nickname, "Irish".

Patricia Ann Caravella

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Legion of Mary 4; S.H.L. 4; Cordette 4; Speech Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Cheerleaders 4; Hostel Club 4; Tennis Club 4.

Renowned for "Why Do Fools Fall in Love" and her love for pork, Patti is full of fun and mischief. Her greatest dream was fulfilled this year when she became a Varsity Cheerleader.

Dolores Catherine Caruso

Saint Raymond, Lynbrook

Mission Club 1; Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Tennis Club 1.

Whether on the basketball court or in the Art Room Dolores combines warm hearted laughter with friendly air. Dolores' love of dancing will be remembered and also her optimism in looking on the brighter side of everything.

Jeanne Marie Clarke

Notre Dame, New Hyde Park

Student Council 4; Mission Club 1,2; Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Photography Club 3; Hostel Club 3,4.

Jeanne has that enviable "look cute all the time" appearance. Would you ever guess that one who is such an athlete and comedienne would ever be an admirer of Browning and of Shakespeare?

Judith Elizabeth Coburn

Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Student Council 1; Tablet 1,2; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Glee Club 1,2; Silhouettes 1,2,3,4.

Her love for fresh air has Judy driving around in winter with the top to her convertible down. This modern day DaVinci is an asset to any art class or club and is much appreciated at S.H.A.

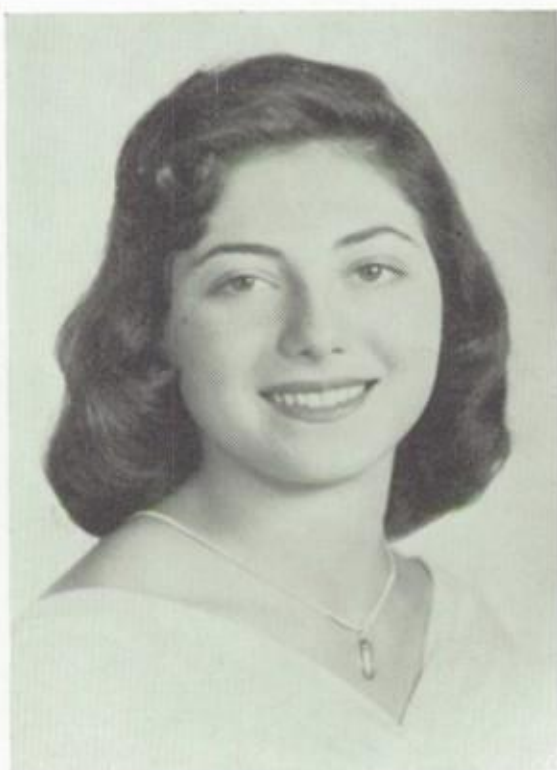

Estelle Marie Coffineau

Immaculate Conception, Jamaica

Legion of Mary 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 2,3; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

"Knit one, purl two," is Estelle's forte, for so speak her widely admired argyle socks. Equally good as an art major she lends a hand to help fashion the posters which add life to our halls.

Maryanne Theresa Corrao

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Mission Club 1,2,3,4; Legion of Mary 2,3,4; Library Club 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 4; Hostel Club 4.

With flaming red hair, that neat look, ready wit, and boundless energy, Maryanne is bound to be the most popular R.N. in the years to come. Haunting her though will be her memories of S.H.A. and the Washington trip.

Rosemary Vivian Cossari

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Cordette 4; Library Club 1,2.

If you pass by the Sugar Bowl on Wednesday night you're sure to see "Roe" there. She is always looking forward to weekends to go to football games and those extra special dances.

Mary Ellen Craven

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Legion of Mary 4; Mission Club 2; Hostel Club 2; Photography Club 3.

Water skiing, and swimming are some of the elements which combine to make summers at the Point even more enjoyable for Mary Ellen. An ardent auto fan, she also finds time to enjoy her record collection.

Maureen Patricia Cullen

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Orchestra 1,2,3,4; French Club 4; Junior Red Cross 1.

"Music, music, music," is the favorite cry of this persevering and ambitious girl. Our orchestra has been enriched by the talent of this established musician for the past four years.

Kathleen Joan Cunningham

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Legion of Mary 1; Library Club 1,2,3; Photography Club 3; French Club 3; Hostel Club 2.

This future Miss Brooks enjoys using some of her unending enthusiasm as an equestrian and writer. Someday she hopes to entice high school students to delve into the noble subject of History.

Marjorie Ann Dahm

Saint Catherine of Sienna, Franklin Square

Glee Club 1,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

Singing, dancing, and piano playing are the big three loves in Marjorie's life. Needless to say a spot in the music world is her ambition for the future. Her gentle ways will prove an added asset.

Isabel Mary Daly

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Speech Club 3; Orchestra 1.

Many of us gained some knowledge of Europe from Isabel, who made this fascinating trip in her Freshman year. Her other activities during high school years included a Florida vacation, violin and piano lessons.

Arlene Ann Dannell

Sacred Heart, North Merrick

Library Club 4; Tennis Club 4.

Arlene was noted for her humorous quips that were on time for every occasion. Like Minta McGinn of Katherine Burton's "Tragedy" Arlene has been ever beginning one of those long range diets.

Anne Marie Dean

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Library Club 1,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

Anne, a very close friend of any Chiropodist, is planning to make teaching her career. She seems to have a bit of trouble with the dinner trays at Mercy Hospital when she is doing volunteer work there.

Carol Ann DeBrita

Saint William the Abbot, Seaford

Glee Club 2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

When Carol isn't babysitting for her loving nephew, Joe, she is usually playing her collection of Hi-Fi records. The Dodgers, cats, Glee Club, Winnie, Terry and Ruth make up the major portion of Carol's life.

Joanne Carol DeLessio

Our Lady of Peace, Lynbrook

Legion of Mary 4; Hostel Club 2; Tennis Club 3,4.

Jo, a quiet yet vivacious girl, is seen driving regularly to school in that famous green convertible which she still can't park. In spite of her love for Italian food she manages to keep her petite waistline.

Joan Patricia Dolan

Saint Boniface, Elmont

Legion of Mary 4; Mission Club 3; Le Cercle Francais 4; Library Club 4.

The two great loves for Joanie are Lindy dances and original coiffures. One of the fondest dreams of every Senior, was realized recently for Joan, when she received that coveted license.

Rosemary Helen Donnelly

Saint Anne, Garden City

Student Council 4; Cordette 4; Speech Club 1,2,3,4; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 4; Hostel Club 3; Tennis Club 2.

Cicero's protege right here at Sacred Heart, Rosemary was the President of Speech Club. Sunday nights at nine, we find "Dinky" tuned into the most congenial disc jockey.

Jacqueline Eleanor Doyle

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Legion of Mary 2,3,4.

During any day at S.H.A. one can see a trim looking blonde hurrying through the halls at a surprising rate of speed. Jackie is a combination of all the nice things little girls are made of.

Carolyn Ann Eager

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Leo Honor Society 2,3,4; Student Council 4; Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 2; Cordette 4; Maryanettes 1; Photography Club 3; Tennis Club 3.

"Ann," as she likes to be called but never is, remembers that Georgetown tour she almost had. This future Florence Nightingale has her hopes set on Saint Vincent's.

Yvonne Joanne Esposito

Saint Gerard, Hollis

Mission Club 3,4; Library Club 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Tennis Club 4.

This dental assistant to-be spends her extra time bowling and attending Queens Village dances. She will always be remembered for her original humor, which was typified by a large red bow on Saint Patrick's Day.

Martha Louise Fandel

Holy Family, Hicksville

Legion of Mary 4; Speech Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 4; Silhouettes 4.

If anyone were to ask Martha to state her true prize possessions, she would probably list her Peter Pan collars and her "huge" green convertible. Her hair makes a striking contrast with her car.

Mary Ann Fanning

Saint Gregory the Great, Bellerose

Mission Club 2; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Photography Club 3.

Neat as a pin, Mary Ann makes all her own clothes. Her favorite pastime is listening to Jackie Gleason records or long, long, telephone conversations. She is distinguished by a stately appearance and dark wavy hair.

Dear Bail - Be good & remember always to love Sacred Heart as I have.

Cathleen Amelia Fanslow

Margaret Anne Farrell

Saint Anne, Garden City

Legion of Mary 2,3; Cordette 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Hostel Club 1; Tennis Club 3.

"Oh, it was hysterical," said Sapphire as she dashed to school with her "automatic everything" car. Cathy's sparkling personality and school spirit make her an everlasting memory to her classmates.

Margs is wholly unpredictable. One minute we know her as Margs, the quiet and serene, the next as a humorous and amusing companion. Regardless of mood Margs is usually found at Kathy's house.

minute of your fabulous year

Barbara Mae Fasano

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Glee Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 4.

As a lover of sports, even a broken arm could not keep Barbara away from skating. Here is one student who has acquired the art of composing excellent letters in French.

Rosemary Edna Fischer

Holy Family, Hicksville

Legion of Mary 4.

Our Lady of Wisdom lost a loyal and true friend when "Ro" joined us in Junior year. "Sincerity plus" has become the motto of this very welcome newcomer, whose position at Gertz didn't stop her from obtaining her driver's license.

Marilyn Jane Fordyce

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 2; Tablet 2,3,4; Cor-dette 3,4; Library Club 1; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Hostel Club 1; Tennis Club 1.

Marilyn spends her spare time as a sales girl at Klein's. She has always told her classmates that she's only a temporary Tablet Rep. but has ended up as permanent for three years.

Mary Theresa Fox

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Speech Club 1,2; Glee Club 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

Xavior Dances are especially enjoyable to this former "Bronxite" who also has a great fondness for pizzas and horses. Considering this original combination and a position at Lord and Taylor's her leisure time is well spent.

Marilyn Ann Gallagher

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Legion of Mary 4; Mission Club 2,4; S.H.L. 3,4; Library Club 2; Glee Club 2,3,4.

This lively lass is characterized by her winning smile and delightful personality. Perhaps it's just that she's chuckling over her mischievous escapades, such as that famous knock on the door in Washington!

Marjorie Carmel Gigante

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Legion of Mary 4; Maryanettes 2,3; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

We wonder if our little package of joy gets as big a bang out of her achievements and jokes as we do. Margie, famous comedienne of S.H.A. has become an expert meat packer since working at the A. & P.

Margaret Anne Goodwin

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 2; Cordette 4; Glee Club 2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

Peggy's beautiful red hair is the envy of many at S.H.A. She is very adroit in searching for and finding loose staples, a result of her absorbing work at Con Edison last summer.

Lois Marie Guarnaschelli

Saint Anne, Garden City

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 2; S.H.L. 3,4; Speech Club 1; Glee Club 2,3,4; Basketball 3; Tennis Club 1.

You will always know that Lois is near when you hear her famous words, "Hi ya, gang!" During lapses in her conversation Lois takes time out to make her popular sandwiches.

Judith Anne Gucker

Incarnation, Queens Village

Mission Club 1; Glee Club 3; Art Club 2; Tennis Club 2; Junior Red Cross 1.

A custodian of her class' funds, "Judy" has held a tight and judicious grasp upon the purse strings. She again uses this tight grasp when she becomes one of her parish's basketball stars.

Mary Lou Guilan

Our Lady of Lourdes, Malverne

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Glee Club 2,3.

Mary Lou, a quiet, reserved girl, possesses more school spirit after school hours than we would at first suspect. A versatile gal, she has also distinguished herself in the Sodality at Our Lady of Lourdes in Malverne.

Irene Margaret Hanly

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Ex-Corde 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Tennis Club 2,4.

Irene is truly what one would call a true friend in every sense of the word. Only the second of the many Hanly girls that will graduate from Sacred Heart, in the near future, we may see Irene giving Arthur Murray instructions in the Charleston.

Phyllis Anne Hannan

Saint Rose of Lima, Massapequa

Mission Club 3,4; Red Cross 1.

No one will ever forget Phyllis' beautiful blonde hair and how neat she always looked. Remember the Washington trip and how anxious we were that she would make the bus.

Catherine Mary Harding

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 2; Maryanettes 2; French Club 4; Photography Club 3.

"Kay" can often be seen with Barbara displaying spectacular talent at the Mineola roller rink. Everyone agrees that with her long hair trimmed to its new stylish bob, she looks so much prettier enjoying her pizza at Vesuvios.

Carol Anne Henry

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Speech Club 3,4; Library Club 1; Photography Club 3.

Swimming, ice skating, roller skating, and bowling are just a few of Carol's pastimes. Although she left us in the beginning of Senior year we will always remember her nice smile and quiet ways.

Roberta Ann Herbison

Mitchel Field Chapel II, Hempstead

Student Council 1; Glee Club Le Cercle Francais 4.

"Bobbie," who by unanimous decision, wins the title of our traveling classmate has toured most of the U. S. Perhaps it is this experience that has made her our expert on how "to win friends and influence people."

Mary Louise Hess

Saint Pascal Baylon, Saint Albans

Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 1; French Club 3,4.

As soon as, "Let me help," is heard we all know Mary is near. When homework answers, money, ideas, understanding or anything is needed one can always rely on Mary as our "helping hand."

Mary Terry Hines

Saint Raymond, Lynbrook

Legion of Mary 4; Glee Club 2,3,4; French Club 4.

You will often find Terry supporting West Point's football team and Glee Club. Terry is a living example of the famous quotation "Good things come in small packages," for she is always kind and generous to all.

Mary Louise Jakubowski

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 4; Ex-Corde 4; Speech Club 1,2; Maryanettes 1; Glee Club 1,3,4; French Club 3,4.

Like a bottle of Pepsi Cola, Mary Lou can be said to have more bounce to the ounce. If you've ever wondered why she's so popular maybe it is because she has never said anything uncomplimentary about anyone.

Barbara Ann Johnson

Saint Gregory the Great, Bellerose

Legion of Mary 4; Tablet 4; Speech Club 1, 2; Library Club 4; Basketball 1,2,3,4; Tennis Club 4.

"Barbs," varsity captain, has recently acquired a taste for a new sport — lindyng at Varsity practice with Ann. She seems to be indispensable to "King Kullen" that is when she isn't showing pictures of Stevie, her little brother.

Carol Anne Jones

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 2,4; Library Club 1; Glee Club 1.

A real live wire with a heart of gold, Carol will long be remembered for her well known Pepsodent smile and drastic hair cuts. In quiet moments, she especially enjoys long drives in that green Mercury.

Mary Jane Iova

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 2,4; Ex-Corde 4; Library Club 1; Hostel Club 3; Tennis Club 2.

A very proud and ardent Yankee fan Mary and her friend Carol always have the most fabulous summers. Her shining red hair and tiny waistline are her trademarks. Here's one girl who's always willing to relate the long and short of things at Villanova.

Jane Marie Joyce

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 1,2,3,4; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Library Club 3; Tennis Club 2.

A Civil Defense Volunteer, Math tutor, and President of Our Lady of Fatima Praesidium are just a few of the many ways Jane tries to help others. She is a real pal to all plus an exemplary student.

Mary Barbara Kager

Our Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Speech Club 1,2; Glee Club 3,4; French Club 4; Silhouettes 2,4.

"Never a day did pass, but Babs had a million laughs," is a phrase which describes her accurately. Here is one senior, who defies us all, by NOT being the proud possessor of a driver's license.

Frances Ann Kane

Saint Gregory the Great, Bellerose

Mission Club 3,4; Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 2,4; Hostel Club 2.

Personality and "Fran" are synonymous. Built in that tiny frame of hers can be found the essence of sweetness and sincerity which will guide her to inevitable success.

Patricia Agnes Kane

Notre Dame, New Hyde Park

Legion of Mary 4; Glee Club 3,4; Tennis Club 4.

All those who know Pat love her for her sweet personality and adorable smile. Glee Club certainly has been enriched for the past two years with her beautiful voice and winning ways.

Betty Jane Keely

Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, Roosevelt

Mission Club 3,4; Orchestra 1,2,3,4; French Club 4; Hostel Club 1.

"Jelly Bean" one of Harry and Bert's ardent fans, has been one of our class' gabbiest gals, and her stories have sounded wonderful. Strange as it seems because her sailor brother is good date bait has nothing to do with her popularity.

Cecelia Frances Kendal

Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, Roosevelt

Legion of Mary 3,4; Art Club 2,4; Hostel Club 2.

With the ability of a Rembrandt, Cecelia can transform a blank sheet into a near masterpiece. With the mischief of an imp she can change a cafeteria of angels into table hoppers and balloon blowers.

Catherine Frances Knowles

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 1,2,3,4; Tablet 1; French Club 4.

'I said 13 and I am really serious.' That's how Cathy begins talking about her favorite topic — the wonderful Knowles family with its 13 children. Perhaps the big crowd at home cause her to forget Study Hall Silence.

Sail,
Best of luck

your future. Remember the long walks
on the peninsula.
Love,
B.J.

Mabelann Elizabeth Lamb

Saint Christopher's, Baldwin

Mission Club 1,2; Legion of Mary 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Silhouettes 4; Tennis Club 2.

Here we find another "friend of all" with that impetuous sense of humor. Will she ever forget those slumber parties with her sit-ups? You have to watch that, Mae, private secretaries need their beauty sleep.

Audrey Georgette Latz

Our Lady of Lourdes, Malverne

Audrey the unpredictable, combines an infallible ability to find the humorous in every situation with an amazing tendency to become lost in deep thoughts. Her powers lie in the great number of books she has read.

Claire Ellen Leahy

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Legion of Mary 3,4; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Cordette 4, Maryanettes 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 4; Tennis Club 3,4.

Tiny, cute, and so very sweet, Claire is a wonderful friend to all. It seems that she can not bear to leave even the smallest incident without adding at least one giggle.

Ann Helene Leibman

Notre Dame, New Hyde Park

Legion of Mary 4; Hostel Club 2,3.

Noted for her naturally curly hair, Ann has helped to make the bus rides to school almost fun. She was one of the many who couldn't wait to get her license and her own car.

Marie Frances Lenihan

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 2; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Cordette 3,4; Library Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 4; Basketball 3,4; Tennis Club 1; Hostel Club 3,4.

"Personality plus" aptly describes this Varsity Basketball star who uses an equally talented hand when driving. Her tales of European travels and interesting nights at sea have enticed and intrigued many.

Handwritten note: Marie Frances Lenihan is a very talented basketball player and a very good driver. She is also a very good friend and a very good person.

Kathryn Agnes Lesewig

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Legion of Mary 2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 1, 3,4; Hostel Club 2.

Kathy, always sincere in what she says and does, is indispensable to Lord and Taylor's detective squad. She loves parties and is an avid rooter at the Chaminade football games.

Eileen Mary Lynch

Blessed Sacrament, Valley Stream

Leo Honor Society 2,3,4; Student Council 4; Mission Club 1,2,3,4; Legion of Mary 2,3,4; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Cordette 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

When deadline time comes around, one can find Eileen racking her brain for ideas to use in her editorial for the Cordette. Previous to getting that coveted license, Eileen's favorite expression was "Wouldn't someone like to drive me home?"

Anne Josephine Macca

Saint Raymond, Lynbrook

Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 4; Glee Club 2; Le Cercle Francais 4; Basketball 1,2,3,4; Tennis Club 4.

She's seventeen, she's charming, she's simply crazy over Tom Toms and Chow Mein. The Banana Queen of S.H.A. can probably be seen in either of two places after class — Kleins or Holy Cross. No doubt she prefers the latter.

*Dear Gail
Best of luck
and happiness always. Love Mary Ellen*

Barbara Anne MacDonald

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 2,3; Library Club 4; Glee Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 4.

When Barbara's not looking for Edna at "The Spoon" she's usually found playing C.Y.O. basketball for Our Lady of Victory. Barbara and we will always remember those hilarious escapades in the cafeteria.

Mary Ellen Mathews

Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Legion of Mary 3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3; Hostel Club 2.

This bright eyed young lady, will always be remembered by her classmates as the girl with the most powerful power steering. All those muscles might have come from that heavy work she did at Jones Beach last summer.

Irene Marjorie Matthews

Saint Gerard Majella, Hollis

Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 1,4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

In her own inimical manner, Irene uses the same enthusiasm to support the Dodgers as she does to dance. Not entirely characterized by these assets, she is recognized by her friendly nature and ready laughter.

Mary Helen McCullagh

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Legion of Mary 4; Speech Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

Mary's laughing Irish eyes and winning personality will long be remembered by all of us. But add to these her Cafeteria antics, her mathematic quandries, her phenomenal Latin translations and you have — Mary McCullagh.

Mary Anne McDonnell

Saint Gregory the Great, Bellerose

Leo Honor Society 3,4; Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 3,4; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Speech Club 2,3,4; Library Club 2; Tennis Club 2.

Our scholarly Mary is always ready to enjoy a hearty laugh. Her trip to Albany as a member of the debating team will always be remembered as one of the highlights in her high school years.

Jerry-Ann McEvily

Saint Aidan, East Williston

Library Club 3,4; Maryanettes 1; Tennis Club 4.

A winning smile and warm personality make Jerry indispensable to Brown and Company, Garden City. Quick witted and full of fun, this constant companion of Loretta, finally completed knitting her first pair of argyles.

Patricia Katherine McGuinness Kathleen Agnes McInerney

Our Lady of the Snows, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 2,4; Library Club 2; Hostel Club 2.

In Washington, Pat considered extra hours of sleep a vital necessity, despite any difficulties in obtaining these. Many mishaps in '56 made her happy when she finally welcomed in the New Year.

Saint James, Levittown

Legion of Mary 4; Cheerleaders 2.

Another Kathryn Murray has been in our midst for the last few years, in the person of Kathy. She was able to demonstrate this great talent when she reigned as Queen of our Senior Prom.

Mary Ellen McMahon

Our Lady of Lourdes, Malverne

Legion of Mary 4; Cordette 3,4; Glee Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 3; Photography Club 3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

"To be long or to be short" that is the age old question of Mimi's hair. But her tonsorial problem doesn't mar her disposition. Bright with joy, hope, and kindness, she gives her all to her friends and Sacred Heart.

Maura Clare Meehan

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Ex-Corde 4; Speech Club, 1; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Tennis Club 1.

Maura possesses that unique quality of enjoying other's jokes almost as much as her own. A friend indeed, is Maura, whose smiling generosity has made us all happy these past four years at Sacred Heart.

Janet Josephine Mehringer

Notre Dame, New Hyde Park

Mission Club 2; Legion of Mary 4; Ex Corde 4; Le Cercle Francais 3; Photography Club 3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

Between trips to Washington, and Villanova, Janet has found time to decipher her many, long, coded telephone calls. News of diets and haircuts are always of special interest to our bundle of joy.

Regina Geraldine Melville

Saint Raphael, East Meadow

Speech Club 1; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1,2,3,4; Glee Club 1; Red Cross 2; Hostel Club 2.

Typing for the summer is great but "Hey doc, scram!" Reggie has many happy memories of Mercy Balls and Peg O' My Heart. An aspiring young actress, she generously offers her talent to the Maryanettes.

Dorothy Elizabeth Miller

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Mission Club 2,4; Ex Corde 4; Orchestra 2,3,4.

When in need of a special book for that History report, why not ask the Chief Librarian of Garden City. Dottie's a real expert when it comes to sending post cards from quick stopovers such as Alexandria, Va.

Jacqueline Mary Molloy

Saint Brigid, Westbury

Speech Club 1,2; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Twirling 3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

Petite Jacqueline with her "finally" long, black tresses, has us all in laughter and tears over the exploits of her numerous brothers and sisters. While acknowledging the defeat of the Dodgers, Jackie found time to be our top Varsity Twirler.

Mary Ann Montalbano

Saint Martha, Uniondale

Mission Club 3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Silhouettes 4; Tennis Club 4.

Working at a summer playground has well equipped Mary Ann for her future occupation — that of a teacher. She rejoiced in '55 when her beloved "Bums" won the Series, but '56 heard her saying "Wait 'till next year".

Dagney Anne Moschetti

St. Raymond, East Rockway

Legion of Mary 4; Tablet 3; Speech Club 4; Glee Club 2; Le Cercle Francais 4; Basketball 1; Cheerleaders 2; Tennis Club 4.

Dagney is the little ray of sunshine around Sacred Heart and is good nature personified. She seems to enjoy the quintessence of life whether trying her hand at basketball, at cheering or just loafing around.

Beatrice Anne Muller

Saint Gregory the Great, Bellrose

Mission Club 1,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; C.C.C. 2,3.

Bea spent a good part of every school day taking a long train ride to and from school. Her quiet determination and sincerity accompanies her in her quest for bigger and better things.

Judith Anne Muller

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Student Council 1,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Ex-Corde 4; Orchestra 2,3; Silhouettes 4; Photography Club 2; Athletics 4; Hostel Club 2,3.

With her friendly smile and her understanding of student problems, Judy is very deserving of her position as Vice-President of the G.O. We would reciprocate, but Judy never seems to have any problems.

Patricia Joanne Mundorff

Saint Christopher, Baldwin

S.H.L. 3; Maryanettes 4; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

"Pat" is an aspiring young singer and hopes to become an opera star. She is constanly taking lessons to improve her beautiful voice. No doubt, we are all looking forward to her operatic debut.

Ellen Bernadette Munucino

Saint Thomas the Apostle, Hempstead

Mission Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

A fascinating trip to Florida is one of the boasts of Ellen, who joined us in Sophomore year. The enjoyable pastimes of skating, cooking, sewing, and collecting records have combined to make her high school years just perfect.

Marilyn Anne Murphy

Saint Raymond, Lynbrook

Legion of Mary 4; S.H.L. 1,4; Orchestra 2; Hostel Club 1,2,3.

Marilyn is one of Sacred Heart's most faithful Chaminade rooters. She loves to dance and has a fabulous record collection. As for the future, Marilyn has high hopes of becoming a nurse.

Drusilla Jean Nolan

Saint Joseph, Garden City

S.H.L. 2; Cordette 4; Maryanettes 2; Hostel Club 2.

Always remembered as the girl with the unforgettable Spanish accent, Dru is indispensible to A & S; that is, when she isn't exercising her capable ability as baby-sitter for the Nolan youngsters.

Jeannine Elizabeth Norton

Saint Martha, Uniondale

Mission Club 1; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1; Glee Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 4; Tennis Club 3,4; Hostel Club 2,3,4.

Her passion for green hair on St. Patrick's day has made her renowned throughout the school. Could it be that Jeannine inherits her love for large pocketbooks from her numerous hiking expeditions to the Catskills?

Dorothy Jean Norwood

Saint Anne, Garden City

Mission Club 2; Legion of Mary 4; Maryanettes 3,4.

Can we ever forget all the fun we had at those piano recitals and practices with Jean? She was a familiar sight in the Dramatic Club plays with her clever portrayals of an irate father or an assiduous lawyer.

Carol Ann O'Connor

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Library Club 1,4; Maryanettes 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Tennis Club 4.

Tell Carol a joke, especially about Mutt and Jeff, and she'll laugh until tears start rolling down her face. When she's not busy giving pajama parties or getting dates for her friends, she is usually writing letters.

Irene Carol O'Donohue

Saint Anne, Garden City

Legion of Mary 2,4; Mission Club 3,4.

When someone tells "Irish" something witty, she is rewarded with a laugh as would please any pessimist. Indeed, Irene has the facility of casting joy at random, she is ever eager to tell jokes and to receive them.

Mary Catherine O'Grady

Saint Joachim, Cedarhurst

Mission Club 2; Legion of Mary 2; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Tennis Club 4.

Follow that irresistible giggle and you are sure to find Mary. Her sincere friendly manner is sure to help her in her future life as a teacher but she warns: "Chemistry won't be my field".

Kathryn Mary O'Hagan

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Kathy, with her long golden tresses and slender figure, has proved that all blondes are not dumb. Ever since Kathy learned to drive there's no holding her from the driver's seat of any vehicle on wheels.

Barbara Ann O'Keefe

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Ex-Corde 4; Library Club 1,4; Maryanettes 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Red Cross 3; Tennis Club 4.

When in need of a pediatrician ask Barbara. She can oblige since she's had so much experience at Mercy last summer. Barbara is to Sacred Heart as Sarah Bernhardt is to Hollywood.

Margaret Anne O'Regan

Our Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Student Council 3; Mission Club 1; Maryanettes 3,4; Glee Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Cheerleaders 4; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Tennis Club 3.

An O'Roodie from way back, Marg was the Captain of the Red Team in this year's Sports Nite. Her outstanding leadership qualities plus her quick Irish grin make her unforgettable.

Carol Joan O'Rourke

Saint Bernard, Levittown

S.H.L. 3,4; Glee Club 1; Silhouettes 2,3,4; Photography Club 2.

O'Rourke-O'Roodie is very cautious when opening doors as a result of a certain Sister's prank in Washington. Her desire for a good time has made her a welcomed addition in any group.

Rosemary Kathleen Owens

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Student Council 1,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Ex Corde 4; Speech Club 1,2,3,4; Maryanettes 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Photography Club 2; Cheerleaders 1,2; Hostel Club 1,2,3,4; Tennis Club 2.

Happiest when her mouth is in operation — Rosemary was a devoted member of Speech Club, Dramatics — and food. In spite of her mischievous tendencies and her quick repartee this Daddy's Sweetheart is truly a loyal friend of Sacred Heart.

Mary Ellen Petersen

Saint Gerard Majella, Hollis

S.H.L. 2; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1; Le Cercle Francais 4; Silhouettes 2,3,4; Hostel Club 2.

Mary Ellen, one of S.H.A.'s best artists, can always be found working on another of those unending posters. She gladly contributes her gift and does a fine job at everything she attempts.

Naomi Anne Plank

Saint Rose of Lima, Massapequa

Mission Club 1,2,3,4; Orchestra 2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

If she's not rushing to orchestra practice with her trusty saxophone tucked under her arm, Nayo is always good for a ride home. Her generosity, however, hinges on one important thing: — if the car starts.

Loretta Jean Porrazzo

Saint Martha, Uniondale

Library Club 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Silhouettes 4; Tennis Club 4.

"Lorry" came to Sacred Heart in her Junior year, but in the two years we have known her, we have come to love her witty personality. Small and vivacious, Lorry has a million and one friends.

Veronica Marie Pratt

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Mission Club 1,2,3,4; Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 2,4; Tennis Club 3,4; Hostel Club 2,3,4.

Ronnie's constant demand: "Where's my pen", is a standing joke between herself and the unfortunate girl who misplaced it. "Must watch my girlish figure, you know," says Veronica as she digs into that chocolate cream pie.

April Adelaide Preziosi

Our Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Cheerleaders 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Library Club 4; Maryanettes 2,3,4; Hostel Club 2,3,4; Glee Club 1; Table: 1.

April may be found leading a gay life by floating between Jerry's and Casa Loma — or portraying the real character — study parts in our school productions. Not even a Brown-ing-King job hindered her participation in school activities.

Susan Mary Probst

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Student Council 2; Tablet Club 1,3; Ex-Corde 4; Library Club 1; Glee Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 2; Hostel Club 1,3; Cheerleaders 1,2,3,4; Tennis Club 4.

As the peppy captain of our cheerleaders, Sue has worked hard; but then Sue works hard at everything! Thomas' School of Horsemanship was lucky to have her for its favorite counselor for the summer.

Jacqueline Elizabeth Puls

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Varsity Twirling 3,4; Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Hostel Club 1,2; Library Club 2.

"The Puls" of Sacred Heart (pardon the pun) kept its "beat" attune with a glorious year! Yes, Jackie, our Student Council President, won all our hearts over to a bigger and better S.H.A.

Edna Muriel Quigley

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Tennis Club 3,4.

The class of '57 gladly welcomed Edna last year. She is another of S.H.A.'s students who can be regularly found haunting the "Spoon". Edna's quick sense of humor and pleasant personality make her an asset to any gathering.

Ellen A. Rafferty

Saint Hedwig, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

In the midst of laughter, one can always find Ellen who most likely has been the cause of such uproars. Her subtle sense of humor has helped to devise many unusual birthday surprises.

*U can sail,
Best of luck
always bus - traveler. God bless you.
Love,
Clara*

Clara Barbara Rapp

Holy Redeemer, Freeport

Leo Honor 2,3,4; Student Council 1,2,3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Legion of Mary 3; Orchestra 2,3,4.

As a member of Student Council for four years, Clara was a familiar sight in Room 102 on Friday afternoons. Whenever Glee Club sang, Clara was there accompanying them with her wonderful piano playing.

Anita Louise Reinhardt

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Student Council 2,3; Mission Club 1,2,3,4; S.H.L. 2,3; Glee Club 1,2; Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Library Club 1.

Anita's pet peeves are garage doors and twin sisters. She summers at Sugar Maples and spends most of her winters ice skating. She remembers strange noises at Washington and is remembered as "Mickey the heart-breaker."

Mary Anne Renehan

Saint Boniface, Elmont

Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 3,4; Dramatics Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

Carrying on the family tradition of liveliness, Mary Anne has turned dismal school days into pleasant memories. Her good nature and energetic antics have won her many friends.

Ellen Regina Ricca

Saint Christopher, Baldwin

S.H.L. 2; Cheerleaders 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 2,4; Hostel Club 1.

Betsy is blessed with naturally curly hair, a supply of witty remarks and unlimited pep. As co-captain of the cheerleaders she has supported our team. In addition, the Silhouettes have benefited from her flare for art.

Emily Jean Rodgers

Holy Ghost, New Hyde Park

Student Council 4; Glee Club 1,2,3,4; Orchestra 2,3,4; Athletic Association 1,2,3; Basketball 3,4.

As a Forward on our varsity basketball team, Emily contributed to our many victories. She was elected President of Glee Club as a reward for her ardent work and carried out her duties to the last letter.

Barbara Lucille Rohne

Our Lady of Peace, Lynbrook

Mission Club 1; Glee Club 3; Cheerleaders 4; Tennis Club 4; Hostel Club 2.

It's a bird! It's a plane! No it's Barbara Rohne of the cheering squad. Characterized by her pep, vim and vigor, she shows forth her true school spirit. During Barbara's more conservative hours we would find her at Mercy Hospital.

Mary Louise Ryan

Saint Raymond, East Rockway

Mission Club 2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Library Club 4; Varsity Basketball 4; Tennis Club 4.

Mary is an essential member of our Varsity who also possesses a distinctive artistic talent. Her portrayal of Santa Claus at the Junior Dance will long be remembered by all who thrilled to her winsome antics.

Suzanne Irene Ryan

Our Lady Of Lourdes, Malverne

Legion of Mary 4; S.H.L. 2,3; Ex-Corde 4; Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Tennis Club 4.

Suzanne's work at Mercy Hospital has well equipped her for her future occupation — that of an anesthesiologist. Her two-toned blue car has gotten to be a familiar sight in the parking lot in back of S.H.A.

Nancy Jane Sargent

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Mission Club 3,4; Legion of Mary 4; Maryanettes 1; Glee Club 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 3,4.

With her job at the Telephone Company, Nancy managed to find some spare time to spend at her favorite hobbies which include cooking and swimming. She also fulfilled her biggest desire to obtain a driver's license.

Marilyn Anne Schmitt

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Legion of Mary 3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Junior Red Cross 3; Tennis Club 1.

The hand of an artist, the stateliness of a model, the poise of a lady — that's our Lyn. Even though working at Oppenheim Collins required much time, she used every spare minute laboring for that driver's license.

Maureen Teresa Schneck

Saint Martha, Uniondale

Ex-Corde 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Photography Club 3.

A new arrival in the Junior year, Maureen easily fit into the crowd at Sacred Heart. She brought her famous cold down to Villanova but generously gave it to her roommate to bring back.

Daryl Jean Scott

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Legion of Mary 1,2,3,4; S.H.L. 2,3.

Daryl may be seen on any sunny holiday astride a paint or palomino circling Hempstead Lake. If you are going to Woolworth's on a Friday or Saturday night, you are assured of wonderful service from our Daryl.

Anita Louise Selesnick

Saint Claire, Rosedale

Legion of Mary 2,3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

This energetic brunette joined our class in her sophomore year, and has been making up for lost time ever since. Well known for her wonderful parties, Anita is always on the go.

Catherine Ann Shields

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Mission Club 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 1,3,4; Ex-Corde 4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

The petite brunette at the wheel of the miniature red fire engine that regularly arrives on a scene at the last minute — is our Cathy. In her quiet moments she'll rave about her big sister, her bigger brother and her love for dogs.

Winifred Margaret Shughrue

Saint Martha, Uniondale

Legion of Mary 1; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Ex-Corde 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Photography Club 3; Tennis Club 3,4.

"Winnie", one of our loyal S.H.A. girls, has always helped any of us who tend to wander endlessly in the halls. Her quick wit and wholesome humor have been proved on her trips to Washington and Villanova.

Seraphine Margaret Spinelli

Saint Gregory, Brooklyn

Legion of Mary 1,2,3,4.

Prone to be reserved, only a few know Seraphine as a regular gal with a keen sense of humor. Seraphine's long jaunts home left little time for activities, yet whatever she supported, she gave of herself.

Beverly Anne Spurrier

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Student Council 2,3,4; Legion of Mary 3,4; Tablet 2; S.H.L. 2,3,4; Glee Club 1; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 2,4; Cheerleaders 4; Hostel Club 1,2,3,4.

Those who deny perpetual motion have never met "Bev"; for she is perpetual motion personified — surging from studies to Art Club to cheering. Indeed, Bev has that unique ability of counting her friends by the number of her acquaintances.

Patricia Marie Stephens

Saint Thomas the Apostle, West Hempstead

Mission Club 3,4; Legion of Mary 2; Cordette 4; Library Club 4; Maryanettes 1; Glee Club 1,2,3; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Basketball 4; Tennis Club 1; Hostel Club 4.

Pat's favorite plant, "Seaweed", caused quite a bit of comment and hilarity that certain Thursday morning in English. Does anyone recall who the sleep-walker was in the wee small hours of the morning at Washington?

Ann Marie Sylvester

Saint Bernard, Levittown

S.H.L. 2; Silhouettes 2; Photography Club 1; Basketball 1.

In her four years at SHA, Ann has beaten a well used path to Sister Alonzo's office for late slips. A talented artist Ann can always be counted on to produce an exciting water color reproduction.

Marie Joan Taormina

American Martyrs, Oakland Gardens

Mission Club 1; Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Hostel Club 2.

Take a petite girl from Queens, add a dash of pep, twinkling eyes, dark brown hair, mix in dependability and sincerity, stir well, season with a broad sense of humor and you have our own Marie.

Patricia Ann Taormina

American Martyrs, Oakland Gardens

Legion of Mary 4; Library Club 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Hostel Club 2,3.

Pat, whose carefree manner and friendly attitude have attracted many friends, can readily be recognized as the life of the party. Her continuous festive attitude has brightened many school days for all who know her.

Margaret Claire Ticho

Saint Joseph, Garden City

Mission Club 3,4; Legion of Mary 4; Cordette 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Hostel Club 2.

With six sisters and brothers, Peggy was certainly busy, but she still managed to win the Senior scholarship. Always a lot of fun, she will be remembered as an ardent Dodger fan.

Mary Patricia Tierney

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Mission Club 2; Speech Club 2; Maryanettes 1.

Mary's merry eyes show her love of life and fun. Can we ever forget a particular night in Washington when a certain girl was the only one up among her roommates?

Frances Theresa Troccoli

Our Lady of Loretto, Hempstead

Mission Club 1,2,3,4; Tablet 2; Le Cercle Francais 3; Orchestra 1; Hostel Club 1,2,3,4.

"Bunny" is one of Sacred Heart's hard working seniors. Beautiful black hair and neatness personified are only two of Bunny's traits. Her big red watch has kept many a Chaminade rooter from being late.

Theresa Ann Trouvé

Saint Martha, Uniondale

Student Council 4; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Glee Club 4; Cheerleaders 2,3,4; Hostel Club 2,4; Tennis Club 4.

Considerate, loyal and fun loving, Terry puts all five feet of her into anything she undertakes. She has worked her way from an obscure violinist to the most significant member of the orchestra.

Barbara Ann Ungashick

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Speech Club 2,3; Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Orchestra 1,2,3,4; Basketball 2,3,4; Hostel Club 1,2,3,4.

Here is a real honest to goodness tomboy who'll do anything for a laugh. Bobbie isn't exactly a reckless driver, but nevertheless, her little blue bomb will inevitably meet its Hiroshima in the near future.

Dear Hal,
Good luck to you in all your future days.
Love
Carol

Carolyn Elizabeth Vallone

Saint Aidan, Williston Park

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 2,3,4; Mission Club 3,4; Library Club 1; Photography Club 4.

We nominate Carolyn to the Hall of Fame because her smile is ever-ready and she is always good natured, because her heart is the biggest and warmest, and finally because we can always associate her with the Sacred Heart ideal.

Carol Frances Vollkommer

Holy Name of Mary, Valley Stream

Legion of Mary 4; Maryanettes 1,2; Le Cercle Francais 4; Hostel Club 1,2,3,4; Tennis Club 2.

All who know Carol can certainly never forget her beaming mischievous smile. Her presence at many pajama parties and pizza parties helped add to the hilarious mood which always surrounds these unforgettable evenings.

Barbara Claire Wagner

Our Lady of Victory, Floral Park

Library Club 1; Maryanettes 1; Cheerleaders 2,3,4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Tennis Club 4.

Another brave soul who sheared her curly locks when she approached the middle of Senior year, Bobbie remained her sweet personable self. She has also been one of our tip top cheerleaders for the past three years.

Marilyn Ruth Welsh

Saint Anne, Stewart Manor

Legion of Mary 4; Mission Club 2; Hostel Club 2; Tennis Club 4.

The cutest and tiniest of seven girls, Marilyn is an asset to any gathering. Her quiet humor has cheered many persons through her work at Mercy Hospital. This pint sized gal has a quart sized heart.

Mary Teresa White

Saint Pascal Baylon, Saint Albans

Student Council 4; Legion of Mary 4; Le Cercle Francais 4.

As President of one Legion of Mary praesidium, Mary raises the minds and hearts of all her flock. Soon she hopes to be raised to the clouds; that is, when she'll enjoy her first helicopter ride, compliments of a former employer.

Winnifred Frances Williams

Saint Brigid, Westbury

Legion of Mary 4; Le Cercle Francais 4; Photography Club 3,4; Tennis Club 3,4.

And we can't forget Winnie, for her very distinctive oratorical voice has added a bit more class to our talented group. She's serious, with a touch of wit; clever, without being crafty — what more for success?

Virginia Anne Worstell

Saint Anne, Garden City

Le Cercle Francais 3,4; Silhouettes 4; Varsity Twirling 4.

Almost 5', 2", Ginny has a sense of humor far superior to her size, which doesn't interfere with her being one of our star twirlers. Ginny excels in Art, but is destined to become an airline hostess.

S. H. A. Activities unite us . . .

The Senior class of the diocesan Leo Honor Society is represented by C. Rapp, M. McDonell, C. C. Eager and E. Lynch.

Leo Honor Society • The Leo Honor Society is an organization which in itself symbolizes the ability and fine qualities of its members.

Aside from excellent marks, which is an important qualification there are many other things required of the prospective members. Among these are leadership ability, an active interest in school affairs, obedience and respect for authority.

After prospective members have been discussed and approved by the faculty and Sister Alonzo, letters are sent to the girls' pastors. On his recommendation, the girls are then admitted to the Society.

Among the many aims of the Leo Honor Society is to make more Christian Ideals appeared in the girls' daily lives. It encourages them to pursue higher goals and realize their responsibilities, in life along with improving on the fine attributes which, in the beginning, made their admittance possible.

Sophomore members of the society B. Meehan, R. De-Franco, S. Doonan, and P. Lucas pose on the steps of the auditorium.

C. Eager, President, M. McDonnell, Vice-president and M. Godesky, Secretary, were chosen to represent the society.

The statue of the Sacred Heart reminds these Juniors of their duty to their school. They are M. Godesky, H. Dunne, S. O'Neil, C. Taylor, E. Bottone.

M. E. McMahon, M. Gigante, D. Moschetti, P. Caravella, J. Puls, J. Mehringer, M. McCullaugh, A. Selesnick, R. Owens, D. Androvic, A. Liebmann, M. Taormina, M. Aexel, R. Fischer, M. Badum, and E. Coffineau are Senior members of the Legion of Mary.

Legion of Mary

The daily recitation of the Catina and the weekly performance of an hour's substantial work comprise the duties of a Legion member. These duties, however simple they may seem, are important means of achieving personal sanctification.

But the Legionary is not the only one who benefits from the hour's work. Patients at nearby hospitals have told us how much they appreciate the puzzles, placecards and hospital bags made by our girls. Our nurses-aids willingly spend their time talking with the patients — time that the regular nurses could never be able to afford. Each Christmas, the children of local orphanages are delighted with the imaginative stuffed animals which are also made by benevolent Legion girls.

Since last year, the Legion, as an institution of Sacred Heart has doubled its membership so that it now boasts of six praesidia. Meetings of Queen Assumed Into Heaven, Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of the Nativity, Queen of All Saints, Our Lady of the Sacred Heart or Mother of Divine Grace are held every day under the spiritual direction of Sister Mary Ulick or Sister Philothea.

Through the intercession and aid of Mary, the true spirit of the Legion will continue to inspire all Legionaries ". . . to undertake and carry out without hesitation great things for God and for the salvation of souls . . ."

W. Welch, A. Sheehan, M. Guilan and H. Kanzler are the officers of the Queen Assumed into Heaven praesidium.

The officers of Mother of Divine Grace praesidium are V. Barry, E. Bottone, M. Lynch and M. McDonnell.

On Thursdays we find C. Vallone, C. Brennenane, A. Bartolomeo leading the meeting of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart praesidium.

The officers of Our Lady of the Nativity are, B. Meehan, treasurer, A. Dean, vice president, C. Kendal, secretary and M. Meehan, president.

More Senior members of Legion of Mary are C. Vollkommer, M. Lamb, J. Dolan, B. Page, E. Quigley, F. Kane, P. Burton, I. Hanly, J. Miller, M. Hess, L. Augurio, D. Scott, P. Kane, L. Bruno, M. Craven, M. Ticho, W. Williams, J. Norwood, M. E. Mathews, C. Leahy, N. Aneser, J. Allen, D. Caruso, C. Capezza, J. Doyle, M. Fandel, M. Schmitt, C. Jones, B. Muller, A. Macca, B. Johnson.

M. Williams, M. L. Jakubowski, M. Bauer and M. White are the officers of the Queen of All Saints praesidium under the guidance of Sister Philothea.

The officers of Our Lady of Fatima praesidium under the guidance of Sister Mary Ulick are A. Meany, J. Joyce, A. Biggen and C. Knowles.

"There will be Mission Club meetings in rooms 312 and 213 this afternoon." This is a familiar announcement frequently broadcast over the Public Address. The Mission Clubs, moderated by Sister Miriam Dolores and Sister St. Malachy, collect stamps, make bookmarks from old Christmas and Easter cards and send magazines to foreign missions.

The cancelled stamps which the girls so diligently trim are sold and the money received from them is sent to aid Missionaries in their work of saving souls.

From the cards that are collected, the prettiest scenes are cut out and pasted on bright colored paper. They are then sent to hospitals, promising pleasure for all who receive them.

The magazines that are brought in by the student body are wrapped and sent to prisons, hospitals and to far-off lands, where priests distribute them to the faithful.

All this, however, could not be accomplished if it were not for the generosity of the girls in giving their time for the Missions.

As president of the Mission Club, M. Aexel finds the time to select a useful pamphlet.

The Mission Club

The Mission Representatives: V. Pratt, A. Dean, M. Hess, K. Keahon, M. Gillespie, E. Albanese, D. Quigley, G. McCormick, M. Rupnick, M. Keilman, N. Packert, G. Gavigan, K. Godesky, P. Callahan, M. Hammelman, D. Ott, R. Dies, and C. Delme line up and smile prettily for the camera.

Trimming and assorting stamps seems to be fun for Seniors, A. Reinhardt, M. Montalbano, Y. Esposito, B. Keely, C. Bory, V. Pratt, M. Badum, E. Lynch, C. Shields, N. Anesar, C. Vallone, D. Miller, I. O'Donohue, P. Goodwin, N. Plank, B. Muller, E. Municino, C. Eager, P. Stephens, P. Boland and M. Aexel.

President, J. Allen and Vice President C. Leahy are the officers of the Sacred Heart League.

Since the Sacred Heart Leader must be a student of outstanding character and loyalty she is therefore able to cope with everyday traffic jams in the halls of S.H.A.

Wearing their badges proudly, these girls maintain order in the halls. They also direct efficiently the fire drills which are essential to the safety of our Faculty and Student Body.

The senior members of the S.H.L. included M. McDonnell, W. Shughrue, C. O'Rourke, L. Guarnaschelli, B. Blass, B. Spurrier, P. Caravella, J. Allen and C. Leahy.

On the stairs we find the sophomore members, T. Sichler, V. O'Donnell, A. Kramer, L. O'Connor, M. Staufenberg, P. Roll, P. Lucas, J. Zerempo, J. McManus, B. Forget, K. Keilman, M. O'Neill, V. Bottone, L. Kost, J. Marcine, R. Rush A. De Neo and P. Robenion.

Membership from the Junior year includes: S. Kramer, M. Gillespie, C. Brennan, S. Allen, H. Fullam, M. Foster, D. Sieck, J. Lamb, M. Gaugh, C. Grac, A. Rotcamp, L. McFeely, M. Finn, P. Toole, N. McGauern, C. Taylor, P. Martin, S. Petrizzo, A. Meany, M. Allen, A. Cote, K. Sadd.

C. Taylor, B. Ferrara, M. Sheppard, L. Guarnaschelli, C. Rapp, P. Whitfield, A. Mulligan, P. Duggan, B. Meehan, J. Doonan, S. Doonan, S. Langly, F. Hamelman, J. Marcone and S. Kennedy seem mighty proud to be the presidents of their classes.

Student Council

J. Muller, Vice-President, J. Puls, President, L. McFeely, Treasurer and P. McCann, Secretary, are right at home in the office.

A full assemblage of the Student Council includes J. Puls, J. Muller, R. Owens, C. Taylor, M. Aexel, I. Hanly, E. Rodgers, M. Meehan, M. White, J. Joyce, M. Fordyce, N. Anesar, T. Trouve, L. Guarnaschelli, B. Spurrier, B. Meehan, P. Duggan, S. Doonan, J. Doonan, S. Kennedy, J. Marcone, F. Hamelman, C. Vallone, M. Guillan, B. Blass, A. Mulligan, M. Badum, J. Allen, C. Eager, S. Langly, C. Rapp, M. McDonnell, E. Lynch, P. McCann, M. Sheppard, P. Whitfield, B. Ferrara, L. McFeely.

E. Lynch, editor, and M. Lenihan, assistant director, work on their editorial for the next issue.

The Cordette

At every important event in Sacred Heart Academy you can be sure to find roving reporters taking notes and diligently gathering information. These are members of the staff of the Cordette who at their twice weekly meetings present their articles to be reviewed by Sister Mary Dorothy, moderator; Eileen Lynch, editor; and Marie Lenihan, assistant editor.

The entire student body looks forward to reading each of the four editions of the paper which make their appearance in the fall, at Christmas and Easter and in June. Each of these issues covers all occasions at the Academy as well as, school activities, fashion and gossip columns, short stories, editorials, poems and reviews.

The Senior members of the staff, P. Stephens, E. Lynch, P. Goodwin, M. Lenihan, C. Eager, M. Fordyce, M. E. McMahon, R. Donnelly, M. A. Caola, D. Nolan, M. Farrell, C. Leahy, B. Blass, M. Ticho and P. Caravella, smile proudly as they look at the result of their hard work.

Supervised by editors Lynch and Lenihan the Junior staff members E. Nieson, A. Bugler, R. Capasso, M. Bono, E. McGann, L. Bummo, J. Becker, S. O'Neill, discuss the aspects of other school papers.

Aided again by the editor and her assistant, Sophomores J. Marconi, B. O'Meara, M. O'Neill, M. Quinn, C. Schleuter, P. Tart, M. Terrence, and B. Re, learn the fundamentals of producing a good paper.

Ex-Corde

I. Hanley, S. Ryan, M. Meehan count money obtained during the yearbook drive.

Surrounding editor I. Hanley, are her assistants S. Ryan, M. Schneck, C. Shields, W. Shughrue.

To all the seniors, doubtlessly, the most important drive is the one for the support of the yearbook, the best and last remembrance of their high school days at Sacred Heart Academy. The days which successfully terminate the drive and those on which their finished product makes its long awaited appearance are the happiest ones, not only for the staff and seniors, but also for the entire student body.

Gathered at the entrance to the auditorium is the entire yearbook staff. Standing — I. Hanley, J. Muller. Row 1 — R. Owens, S. Probst, C. Shields, M. Schneck, J. Mehringer and S. Ryan. Row 2 — B. O'Keefe, M. Jova, W. Shughrue and D. Miller. Row 3 — M. Jakubowski and M. Meehan.

Photography Club

This club, under the moderation of Sister Philothea, helps the girls to develop their photographic talents as well as their film.

A diversified routine is presented to the girls to acquaint them with all phases of the art. The club sponsored a field trip to Hempstead Lake State Park to take pictures. After the development and enlargement processes, the girls evaluated each others work. A distinct feature of the club is that members are permitted to use the dark room during free periods. When our girls have absorbed all the fine points of photography, they will enter competition.

Standing around President M. E. Craven, are E. Albanese, M. L. Allen and D. Newell.

M. A. Gillespi, P. Hoffman, P. Koenig, P. Klutch, K. Kladt, K. Aldinger, R. Neilson, M. E. McGarry, examine cameras and their various parts.

Preparing to develop a film are H. Barry, W. Williams, M. E. McMahon, A. Rottkamp, S. Kramer, J. Mehringer and M. Godesky.

G. Gdula, J. Leahy, M. E. Samuelson, J. Yennelli, J. Viverito, P. May, P. Winship, J. Maloney, E. Lloyd observe the process of developing a film.

Library Club

It has been said, "Books are the windows of knowledge" thus the Library Club's aim is to prove this by encouraging girls to use books and library services so that they can become acquainted in past and present events.

J. Marcone, P. Dixon and J. Clarke, as officers of the Library Club, check their accomplishments of the year.

S. McCloskey, S. Allyn, G. Delaney, A. Gaffney, J. Lamb, M. Williams, and P. Dixon straighten the reference shelves.

The entire library club: Y. Esposito, M. Ryan, P. Stephens, A. Macca, B. Johnson, B. MacDonald, N. Aneser, A. Dean, A. Presiozi, J. Marcone, W. Welch; M. Kenny and M. Byrnes (standing); J. Dolan, M. O'Grady, M. Baur, M. Caola, B. O'Keefe, P. Boland, M. Taormina and F. Kane (table at left); S. Larkin, B. Murdock, P. Balinski (table at right); S. Allyn and J. Stenson (foreground).

Le Cercle Français

A. Reinhardt, M. Badum, M. O'Regan and M. Jakubowski, the Senior officers of the French Club listen to a selection of French records.

We wonder what P. Sadler, S. Allen, A. Fox, M. Smith, C. Moran, K. Matthews, C. Grac, C. F. glozzi and P. Woodley are writing .

"Parlez-vous français?" If you do, you will enjoy the French Club. This club, under the direction of Sister Frances Irene, holds its meetings in room 306. During the year, Sister shows films, plays records and takes the girls on various educational trips.

The French Club, now in its sixth year of existence, has been a valuable aid in supplementing culture and conversation to the French curriculum.

Enjoying some fine French music are Senior members: P. Burton, B. O'Keefe, M. Lamb, M. Pteresen, B. McDonald, B. Kager, B. Blass, M. Dahm, M. Aexel, T. Trouve, C. Bory, D. Caruso Y. Esposito, P. Taormina, C. Vollkommer, B. Keely, J. Dolan, A. Dean E. Quigley, M. Montalbano, V. Pratt, B. Spurrier, C. O'Connor, M. Meehan, P. Caravella, R. Owens, M. Lenihan, P. Stephens, S. Ryan and R. Herbison.

M. Fox, M. Schneck, E. Rafferty, E. Municino, B. Fasano, M. Cullen, M. Hess, C. Shields B. Ungashick, M. Mathews, M. Fandel and M. Fanning are Senior members who learn where Lyons is located.

So eager to study the geography of France are E. Lynch, K. Lesewig, W. Shugrue, C. DeBrita, P. Mundorff, N. Plank, M. McCullagh, S. Probst, M. Corrao, V. Worstell, I. Hanly, W. Williams, C. Harding, F. Troccoli, D. Moschetti, M. Fordyce, M. Goodwin, C. Eager, B. Wagner, E. Ricca, N. Anesar, M. Caola, E. Coffineau, M. Farrell, C. Leahy, J. Molloy, A. Macca, M. Ticho and L. Schmitt, who are also Senior members.

Speech Club

"Catholic leadership through and eloquent laity", is not only the motto of the Catholic Forensic League, but it also describes the aim of Sacred Heart's speech club. The girls in the club receive well rounded instruction under the direction of Mr. Robert L. Sheppard and faculty moderators Sister Mary Dorothy and Sister Elizabeth Loretto. Types of speech work include debate, extempore, original oratory, dramatic interpretation and humorous interpretation. Membership in both Catholic Forensic League and the National Forensic League enables our girls to try their skill against boys and girls from other high schools by their participation in the tournaments which are held every two weeks. Sacred Heart Academy can truly be proud of its fine speech club with its many accomplished members.

Speech Club's president, R. Donnelly, shows a trophy to the other officers, M. McDonnell, R. Owens and S. G'Neil.

M. McKenna, C. Clair, M. McNamara, A. Magenheimer and P. Wood, are the Freshmen members of the club.

Dear Gail,
 Best of luck and love to a great kid! Love
 Kay

Sophomore members of the club are: Row 1 — T. Anderson, A. Fox, C. Campo, U. Driscoll, C. Hoadley, M. A. Bryan, W. Welch, C. Covaleski, B. Meehan, P. Lucas, C. A. Moran, J. Zrarembo, S. Langle, D. Barker, K. Schleuter, K. Carrlson, M. Christman and J. Reilly.

Row 1 — M. McDonnell, P. Caravella, C. Taylor, R. Owens. Row 2 — M. Lynch, V. Barry, E. Botton, E. Neissen. Row 3 — H. Fulam, P. Hilpman, M. Sheppard, S. O'Neil, N. McGovern.

The glee club officers are M. E. Mathews, N. Dodd, C. Rapp and M. Rodgers.

"Let all my life be music" . . . and how colorless life would be without the activities of our Glee Club.

Under the splendid direction of Sister Mary Immaculate, each girl does her best and her efforts never go unrewarded. The reward is the thankful patient at St. Joseph's Hospital after hearing the Glee Club's inspiring rendition of "Adeste Fideles" or the beaming smile of a parent the night of the Spring Musicale. In either case, everyone knows that the success has only been achieved through nightly prayer to Mary, the guiding spirit of the Sacred Heart's Glee Club.

Senior members of the Glee Club, First row: M. Fox, M. E. Mathews, B. Blass, C. Rapp, M. L. Jakubowski, M. A. Montalbano, J. Gucker, P. Kane. Second row: M. Goodwin, L. Guarnaschelli, M. Fordyce, M. Dahm, E. Rodgers, B. Kager, and P. Mundorff.

Tuning up before a performance are orchestra members R. J. Puls, C. Puls, A. Reinhardt, D. Geneva, J. Norwood, E. Reisert, N. Schultz, T. Trouve, G. Boyle, M. Cullen, R. Dellomo, P. Toole, E. Rodgers, A. Harrison, A. Johnston, M. L. Rupnick, V. Barry, B. J. Kelly, P. Wood, D. Gilligan, P. Quest, N. Plank, B. Ungerschick, P. Raynor, C. Rapp, R. Harrison, D. Miller and S. Ryan.

Orchestra

This has really been a great year for the Orchestra. With the opening of the school year, Many new members were added to the Orchestra, and Mr. Frank De Rubba was put in charge of this group. But with unflagging zeal practice continued. Every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the walls of the Music Room reechoed with the sounds of ever-improving orchestral harmonies.

The Orchestra is represented by its officers: T. Trouve, V. Barry, B. J. Keeley, and D. Miller.

Senior members of the Orchestra: C. Rapp, M. Cullen, T. Trouve, B. Ungarschick, A. Reinhardt, E. Rodgers, N. Plank, S. Ryan, B. J. Keely, J. Puls, D. Miller.

In the orchestra pit, awaiting their cue are A. Johnston, T. Trouve, M. Cullen, V. Hart, G. Boyle, D. Geneva, A. Reinhardt, J. Norwood, T. Norwood, J. Puls, C. Puls, E. Reisert, A. Shanghnesy.

Tablet

We could know all the Catechism ever written and it would be no avail if we did not read a current Catholic newspaper, a Periodical that covers the Catholic viewpoint on current events.

In the Brooklyn Diocese our newspaper is

The Tablet . . . Under the direction of Sister St. Malachy, the members of The Tablet Club encourage the buying and distributing of the paper. They also mail it to foreign missions where it is eagerly read by many whose only contact with the free world is their newspaper.

Posing on the stairs before distributing their papers to the students are B. Johnson, C. Duignan, R. DiScoli, C. McCoughey, D. Duggan, B. Englert, J. Lamb, S. McClasky, M. Larkin, C. Knowles, C. Burnes, R. Knowles, R. McGloin, C. May, M. Cuite, N. Forget and M. Fordyce.

Maryanettes

When the Maryanettes produce their annual dramatic presentation, it is in our estimation every bit as good as a Broadway play, for this club can boast of exceptional talent.

This year with Mrs. Kathleen McDermott as coach and Sister James Catherine as faculty moderator, the girls produced five playlets within the club in addition to the main play.

Officers R. Melville, R. Owens, B. Meehan and P. May find something very funny in the Roll Book.

M. Meehan, R. Owens, J. Norwood, R. Melville and B. O'Keefe practice a scene from Leave It To Suzanne, a play they produced for an assembly.

E. Redington, B. Meehan, A. Wikander, J. Masterson, D. Clancy, P. Raynor, L. Maher and B. Lee go over the final scene in The Trysting Place.

Exercise is an important part of dramatics as demonstrated by (top) N. McGovern, K. Matthews, G. Childs, M. Krajnik, P. Tart, C. De Koning, J. Aranella, (kneeling) J. Molloy, E. Bottone, G. McCormick, C. Figlozzi, H. Fullam, P. Mundorf, J. Malnoey, P. McCann, L. Selesnick and P. Chelluck.

A scene from the Christmas play pictures (kneeling) C. Barrett, E. Quinn, E. Reisert, B. Hammelman, F. Hammelman, J. Reilly, D. Barker, J. Zukas (standing) K. Tracey, N. Smith, P. Hart, C. Covalski, M. A. Hetzer, N. Gallagher, J. McManus, D. Ott, M. Smith, M. Hammelman and N. Sieck.

F. Kane, M. White, T. Sichler, H. O'Sullivan, L. O'Conner, S. Langle, A. M. Paternoster, J. Leahy, C. Sadd, H. Barry, S. Petrizzo and V. McSherry represent Sacred Heart Academy as members of the Junior Red Cross.

Junior Red Cross

Everyone knows the widespread good that the Red Cross does throughout the world; and every girl at Sacred Heart is proud to do her share. At the beginning of the year representatives are elected from each official class to help carry on this worthwhile work.

The Red Cross pin worn on her collar and the membership card carried at all times in her wallet are the signs that each girl is a member in good standing of this worthy organization.

With the cooperation of the girls and their representatives, under the moderation of Sister Maria Gertrude, the annual drive for funds is always a huge success.

Hostel

Many a Friday after school, the members of the Hostel Club can be seen hurriedly preparing to depart on another of their numerous trips to nearby parks, swimming pools, skating rinks and tennis courts. This organization is "just what the doctor ordered" for any Sacred Heart girl who loves the outdoors and all sorts of athletic activities.

Under the capable guidance of Miss Bellon, and Barbara Blass, the president of Hostel Club, the members enjoy many unforgettable outings on which they learned not only the rudiments of many sports such as basketball and tennis, but also the importance of good sportsmanship and good fellowship.

M. Aexel, B. Bellon, A. Simpson, M. Luhrs, C. Bory and J. Norton relax at their first stop in Lancaster, Pa.

B. Blass discusses future plans with these members of the Hostel Club: J. Martin, M. Clarke, E. Rebman, M. Terrence, M. Kane, N. Packert, R. DeFranco, E. Redington, E. Coffineau, A. Wikander, F. Troccoli, S. Langle, V. Pratt, B. Kager, J. Muller, C. Bory, B. Ungashick, P. Burton and I. O'Connor.

Silhouettes

The Silhouettes, under the able direction of Sister Maria Jude may be found busily working in the Art Room creating posters for the next school event. Wheather it be a Christmas play, sports rally, Orchestra concert, or Spring Musicale, these girls work endlessly to prepare fine masterpieces — and masterpieces they are. For all aspiring Rembrants, this is the club for you.

K. Lesewig (seated) reads directions for jewelry making to C. Sadd, M. Montalbano, C. Grac, M. Ripnick, J. Lamb, E. Erhardt, A. Kelly, B. Blass, E. Coffineau, J. Coburn, M. Peterson, M. Lamb and C. Kendal.

Sketching their rough copies for their posters-to-be are S. Langle, C. Hoadley, K. Carrlson, E. Callahan, P. Balinski, G. Gavigan, M. Keilman, P. Lucas, P. Allen, L. Forrer, P. Dixon, A. Scholl, R. McDonald, N. Nodolyn and M. O'Neill.

Pen-sketching can be fun for V. Pratt, E. Graves, L. Burns, P. Connolly, C. Bory, B. Troccoli, R. McGratty, M. Godesky, P. Burtin, J. Boemecke, P. Martin and S. Petrizzo.

Art Club Officers, M. Bono, C. O'Rourke, B. Spurrier and G. Delaney plan their meeting.

S. Hemple (seated) studies the work of the masters with C. Muller, M. O'Donnell, K. Padley, S. Neitman, A. McDonald, K. Beckley, M. McKenna, C. Bervetti, K. Meyer, I. Kane and E. Hickey who someday hope to be masters.

Athletics

D Miles and B. Forte, mascots of the Cheerleaders and Twirlers respectively, pose with another mascot.

M. Bird, B. Rohne, B. Spurrier, P. Caravella, B. Ricca (co-captain), S. Gonsalves, A. Preziosi, M. O'Reagan J. Hart, T. Trouve, G. Gdula, S. Probst (captain) and D. Miles (mascot), Varsity cheerleaders, show off their skills for the camera.

Cheer Leaders

Twelve vavacious Sacred Heart Varsity Cheerleaders tumble out on the basketball court and proceed to urge their team on to V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!

With a flash of red and a spirit of energy they create havoc and enthusiasm as the others in the bleachers cheer along with them.

With Sue Probst, the Captain, the girls practice on Thursday afternoon in the gym. For the second year, Sacred Heart Academy was a contestant in the C.Y.O. Cheering Tournament. In March they were for the first time, invited to participate in the National Cheerleaders Tournament.

Twirlers

With the glitter of eight silver batons and a whirl of eight bright yellow skirts, the Varsity Twirlers, are in action again.

The Twirlers have been in existence, as a group for the past two years, and Sacred Heart Academy wonders how they ever got along without them.

Captained by Jacqueline Molloy, the girls can be seen practicing diligently almost every Thursday afternoon in the gym. They have invented many unique numbers and are always on the lookout for a new 'routine'.

"Good Luck, Twirlers, and we're glad you're here to stay!"

The Varsity twirlers, V. Worstell, S. Rice, C. Delaney, K. Clear, J. Puls, R. DiScoli, J. Molloy and B. Forte get ready to twirl their batons in their best manner.

A. A.

Nancy Aneser and Miss Bellon direct and supervise the Athletic Associations in all its endeavors. Pep rallies, the basketball teams and Sports Night all come under the heading of successful ventures undertaken by this organization.

The Athletic Association tries to instill in all the girls at Sacred Heart Academy a love of clean living and good sportsmanship as a pattern for our future lives.

J. Molloy, B. Johnson, S. Probst, K. Godesky, M. Kilgannon and J. Guerin, the captains of varsity and J.V. twirling, basketball and cheering, listen while N. Aneser, the president of the A. A., gives a pep talk.

Varsity

The Varsity basketball games are undoubtedly the most highly anticipated events of the entire school year. At the beginning of each season, a Pep Rally is held in the gym and all the students are invited to meet the players, cheerleaders and twirlers. Win or lose the team never fails to provide the onlookers with an afternoon filled with thrills and excitement. Some of Sacred Heart's biggest rivals are Our Lady of Mercy, Saint Agnes, Dominican Commercial, Our Lady of Wisdom and of course, Mary Louis. The teams, moderated by Sister Miriam Dolores and Sister Saint Malachy, coached by Miss Bellon and captained by Barbara Johnson, practices often and hard to continue the reputation it has built for itself over the past few years.

To the Varsity, we extend our sincerest congratulations for a job well done.

B. J. Keely, B. Kager, J. Agresta, M. A. Gillespie, A. Bugler, Rodgers, J. Muller and P. Burton comprise our Varsity basketball

Just as Rome was not built in a day, neither is a good athlete. It takes months of practice to develop a fine athlete, and even more time to train him to work as part of a team. The function of Jay Vee Athletics at Sacred Heart is to provide experienced material for our Varsity.

Under the instruction of Miss Bellon, the Freshman and Sophomore athletic teams spend many leisure hours perfecting games and improving techniques. Certainly everyone will agree that our Jay Vee is an essential link in the athletic program.

Jay Vee

Up and coming is our Junior Varsity basketball team — S. McCormick, N. Leniham, P. Whalen, H. O'Sullivan, J. Masterson, J. McManus, V. Maggie, M. McGuire, N. Sieck, (kneeling) M. Kilgannon, N. Packert and J. Denker.

L. McFeely, A. Macca, B. Johnson, E. McGann, C. Johnson, C. Taylor, P. Stephens, M. Lenihan, B. Ungashick, E. team. They are truly our pride and joy.

Sitting pretty are J. Lamb, K. Tracey, M. Cuite, J. Guerin, E. Kane, C. LaPlace, S. Nietmann, T. McInerney, the members of our Junior Varsity twirling squad.

M. Flament, K. Fitzsimmons, J. Seaman, G. Berger, S. Maher, K. Godesky, P. Seidlick, U. Driscoll, C. Zawada, P. Hilpman, and S. Doonan are always so vivacious.

S. H. A. Occasions bring us...

AD JESUM PER MARIAM

Graduation Day, the culmination of our dreams, is the product of four years of hard work, study and fun. In order that it will not be forgotten too quickly, the Alumnae Association sponsors a yearly Communion breakfast to renew old acquaintances.

This year the Mass was at nine o'clock in the Academy gymnasium. After Mass, the girls proceeded to the Hempstead Golf Club for breakfast. Father Paul Curtin from Saint Peter's College, Jersey City, spoke on "The Role of Women in the Modern World."

Through such gatherings as these, threads of devotion to our Alma Mater and the Sisters of Saint Joseph will continue to weave patterns of love and service to Sacred Heart long after Graduation Day.

B. Buckley receives, while A. Hinchman helps Father serving.

Posing with Father Curtin, S. J., are the officers M. McGann, K. Murray and S. O'Neill.

C. Quibbs, M. Camillery, A. Macco are seated at their table listening to Father.

Alumnae Communion Breakfast

A smiling D. Wines stands out among the girls at her table.

Father Curtin, S. J., inspires his audience with his brilliant talk.

Listening to Father Curtin are K. Reilly, K. Petrano, C. Lombert, P. Meyer, S. Fitzpatrick, M. Murphy.

C. McCann, N. LaMontagne, P. Fouhy, P. Savage, and M. Quinlan enjoy their breakfast.

Villanova Conference

Sister Alonzo and Sister Mary Dorothy seem just as anxious to start their journey to Villanove as do the girls in back of them.

Once settled at the Penn-Sherwood Hotel, J. Mehringer, M. Meehan, R. Owens, and I. Hanly enjoy a bit of relaxation.

As the night progresses, C. Fanslow, I. Hanly, J. Mehringer, M. McMahon, M. Meehan and B. O'Keefe seem to get gayer.

The following morning, P. Burton, J. Norton, V. Pratt and F. Troccoli struggle to maintain their composure against the elements.

The weekend of October 6, 1956, will always be remembered by the members of both the Ex-Corde and Cordette staffs. At three o'clock, on Friday afternoon, all the travellers boarded a bus and embarked on the memorable trip to Pennsylvania, and the Villanova Press Conference.

Saturday was spent attending various lectures and conferences concerning the layout and editing of both school newspapers and yearbooks. At the end of the day, Benediction was held in the chapel, on the grounds of Villanova University.

Sunday afternoon, we left the Penn-Sherwood Hotel in Philadelphia and, after an enjoyable ride on the Jersey Turnpike, arrived again at Sacred Heart Academy.

S. Ryan, W. Shugrue and M. Schneck seem reluctant to go to sleep with the temptations afforded by the television set.

P. Goodwin, P. Stephens and C. Eager can't resist munching that delicious candy!

M. McMahon, P. Caravella, I. Hanly, R. Donnelly, B. Blass, S. Probst and R. Owens display mixed emotions on returning home from a wonderful weekend.

These chorus groups await the beginning of the pageant.

B. Rhone, T. Trouve, M. A. Renehan, M. Fox, M. Tierney, M. Taormina, J. Puls, prepare behind the scene to present their tableau.

C. Y. O. Day

M. Byrnes, J. Zarembo, E. Reisert, G. Sickler are enjoying a square dance on the beautiful Brentwood grounds.

R. McDonald, E. Rebman, C. Hoadly, K. Ranken, P. Tart and V. Hennessey find C. Y. O. day very pleasant.

October 12, 1956 was the tenth annual celebration of Catholic Youth Organization Day at Brentwood, of which Sacred Heart is proud to be a participant.

The events of the day began with Mass. Afterwards, a pageant entitled "The Ideals of Catholic Youth" was presented in which several of our Seniors took part.

Lunch followed and the Father McGovern's square dance music added to the girls' enjoyment.

Speeches were given about the religious, married, and single vocations and questions were submitted to the speaker concerning her topic.

Benediction marked the close of a full day of prayer, instruction, and recreation.

The aim of this day, when Parochial High School boys and girls from all over the island assemble, is to stress the supernatural character of a Catholic life and to show the importance of the Sacraments in attaining our eternal reward.

This tableau portrays the ordination to the priesthood as part of the pageant.

Sister Mary Ulick introduces the three panel speakers from S. H. A., M. McCullough, R. Owens and R. Donnelly who will speak on the three vocations in life for girls.

Everyone seems to be taking advantage of the saying "Swing your partners; promenade all."

Square Dance

Father Govern found eager participants in this group with R. Dies and I Smith.

Goodness, doesn't square dancing make you thirsty.

This happy foursome take a break to enjoy a snack.

J. Coburn, M. O'Regan, B. Blassand, M. E. Petersen and G. Hanly are amused at what Sister Alonzo and Sister Marie Therese are saying.

Shine on, Shine on Harvest Moon . .

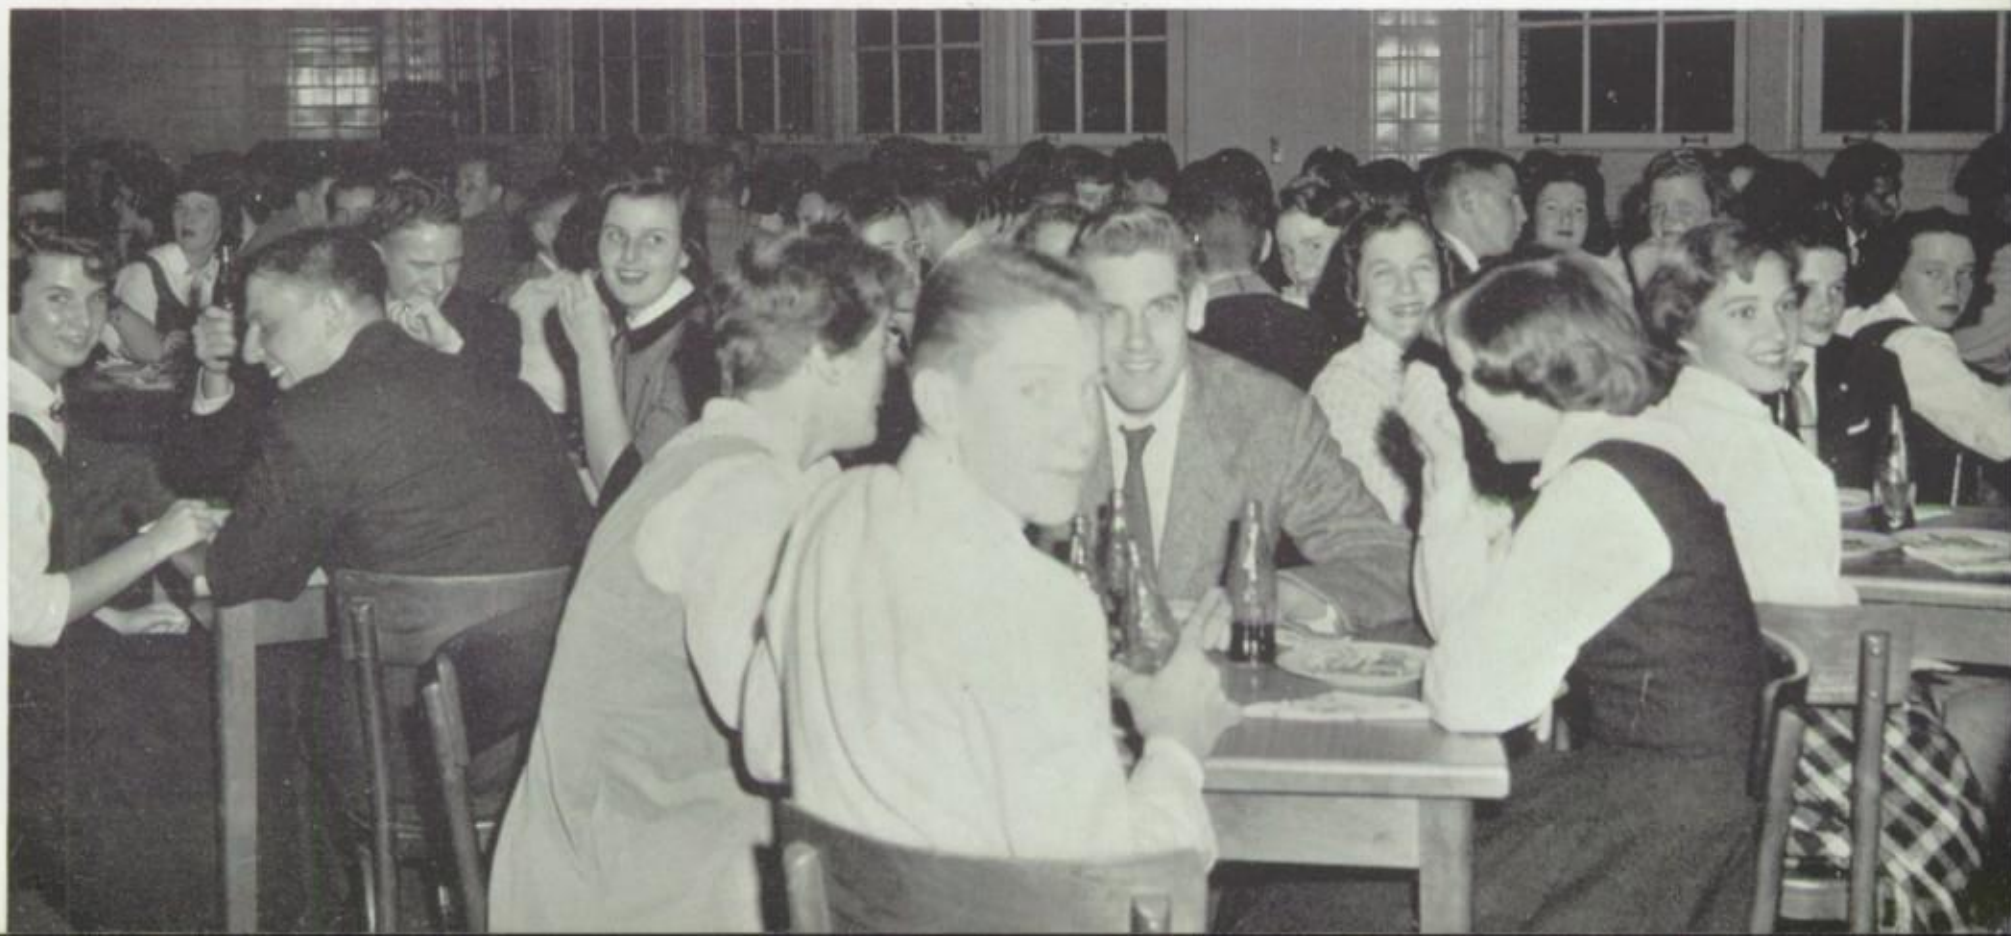

M. Corrao, J. Norton and L. Guarnashelli look as though their responsibility of waiting on tables is enjoyable.

With the shot of a gun the first social event of the school year began. The memorable date was October 26, 1956, and the place was Sacred Heart Academy Auditorium.

At 8:00 P. M. Father Govern and his Westbury Westerners began the festivities at S.M.A.'s sixth annual Square Dance. Between square dances and recorded music, the couples found time to enjoy refreshments in the cafeteria. Halloween was used for our theme and decorations. Black cats, pumpkins and broomsticks combined to create an atmosphere of unending gaiety.

These couples are having a good time devouring the refreshments of our Square Dance.

Mr. Joyce, Chairman, confers with Sister Alonzo.

The sixth annual Father-Daughter Communion Breakfast was held on Sunday, November 4. Family love was strengthened when fathers accompanied by their daughters assisted at Mass in the auditorium. After uniting spiritually by receiving Our Lord in Holy Communion, all enjoyed a delicious breakfast at the Garden City Hotel. Students and their fathers were awakened to the necessity of prayer in preventing war by the words of Father Ascan, and Monsignor Asip with his font of humorous stories made the occasion an even more memorable event.

R. Ryan, S. Ryan, Mr. Ryan, J. Joyce, Mr. Joyce listen as Father Askin addresses the gathering.

The Candle Procession by the Glee Club was one of the highlights of the evening.

Christmas Play

"It is Christmas time, and the right time to tell the real story of Christmas itself; and of all the wonderful legends that belong to us, the true Christians . . ." and thus the Senior class of 1957 presented its Christmas play on Thursday evening, December 20, and on Friday morning, December 21.

The girls in the chorus, dressed in white formals and red capes trimmed with gay Christmas corsages, provided a heavenly atmosphere for the unveiling of the beautiful antiphons of Advent. As the chorus recited, Stars of Hope, together with angels bearing the particular Advent symbols, descended upon the stage. Throughout the account of the legend, the girls were assisted by the Glee Club.

On the lighter side was the explanation of the legends of holly, mistletoe, the fir tree, point-

In keeping with tradition, the program was terminated by an enactment of the Nativity scene accompanied by a selection of "O Holy Night."

Sincere thanks are extended to Sister Elizabeth Loretto and to our Seniors for a most enjoyable performance.

The night of the Senior Prom, December 28, 1956 arrived and the most elegant event in the social life of the Seniors took form. Girls and their escorts stepped out into a clear, crisp winter's night and embraced the essence of a "Golden Mist". This atmosphere lasted the entire evening but the gold glittered the brightest when American beauty roses were presented to the queen and her attendants.

Everyone applauds as the Queen is announced.

L. Guarnaschelli, V. Pratt, J. Puls, C. Rapp, P. Burton, C. Fanslow, J. Muller, the Prom committee, take a well deserved bow for their efforts.

A slow dreamy waltz and everyone is happy.

Junior Dance

For weeks preceding January 25th, Juniors under the supervision of Sister Maria Gertrude and Sister Philothea, worked diligently preparing for their dance.

Nature in compliance with the theme, "Winter Wonderland" appropriately covered the ground with a blanket of snow.

A grand time was had by all under a ceiling of sparkling snow flakes as Camile Donato was crowned Queen and with the closing strains of the Grand March, the evening ended.

M. E. McGary, S. Petrizzo, P. Conly, E. Bottone, H. Dunn, V. Cummings and B. O'Sullivan all join in the Grand March.

B. Ferrara and J. Burke search for their tickets to give to the Sophs at the door.

The Mexican Hat Dance is enjoyed by K. Clear, V. Barry, L. Doing and J. Leahy.

P. Tart, R. Torma, V. Bottone, M. Hemple, B. McCann and B. Re prepare to meet the demands of the hungry dancer.

An evening of dancing is enjoyed by all the Juniors and their escorts.

B. Ferrara crowns C. Donato Queen of the dance.

Assemblies

The Student Council induction was our first assembly. Here we see M. McDonnell and Sister Alonzo.

Sister Clemens, standing with Sister Alonzo, speaks to the girls on the Nursing Sisters of the sick Poor.

J. Norwood, R. Melville, M. Meehan, R. Owens, A. Preziosi and M. O'Regan take a curtain call after their fine performance in Leave It To Suzanne.

Only at assemblies are we united as one student body to enjoy together the accomplishments of our friends.

In September, the chief assembly is the one at which the new Student Council members are inducted. The President of our G. O., Jackie Puls and the Vice President, Judy Muller then act as alternate chairmen at the various assemblies.

Next came Leave It To Suzanne, a product of the Maryanette Seniors.

At Christmastime, our hearts were lightened when Miss Mary Louise Hickey enacted The Joyous Season for us.

Sister John Francine's Juniors presented Nuptiae Tulliae and showed us the wedding customs of Old Rome.

One assembly was devoted to the Music Department. Instrument solos by the members of the Orchestra and a few vocal renditions by "Our Quartet" were enjoyed by all.

A scene from Nuptiae Tulliae shows H. Fullam, C. Grace, G. McCormack, P. May and M. Sheppard dancing attendance on M. Krajnik, who played the part of Tullia.

In another scene we catch a glimpse of M. Lynch, A. Rottkamp, L. McFeely, E. Bottone, S. O'Neil, P. McCann and the slaves, B. Sullivan, A. Gannon, E. Donahue, H. Dunne, N. Dodd, N. DiGiovanni and J. Lamb.

First Friday

When the Sacred Heart appeared to Saint Margaret Mary, He made known to her His desire for special devotion to Him on the First Friday of every month. In a school dedicated to the Sacred Heart it is only natural that we should honor Him as a united group in accordance with His wish.

On each First Friday, a priest is invited by Sister Alonzo to address the girls and celebrate Benediction. Many of us will long remember the inspiring talks given by Monsignor James Asip, Father Raymond David, Father John Gorman and Father Chiara. We are truly thankful for this opportunity to attend Benediction and partake of some of the many graces offered us.

D. C. Adventure

Chief among the important events at Sacred Heart Academy is the annual Junior trip to our nation's capital, Washington, D. C.

Each year as spring approaches with the Juniors anxiously anticipating that long waited trip, preparations and arrangements are eagerly undertaken. When the day arrives and the girls finally board the buses, they leave behind eager Freshmen, envious Sophomores, and tearful Seniors.

During their visit, the girls stayed at the Lafayette Hotel and spent two very sleepless nights and three very exciting days. The tours include trips to the Washington Monument, Mount Vernon, Library of Congress, Capitol Building and the most popular of all, Georgetown University.

The Honor Guard at The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

E. Coffineau, J. Norton, C. Bory, M. A. Corrao, V. Pratt and Sister Alonzo can't wait to see the Capitol Building.

Standing on the steps of the Capitol are J. Norton, C. Bory, P. Burton, V. Pratt and E. Coffineau.

After a busy day, dinner is welcome to P. Burton, C. Bory, M. A. Corrao, V. Pratt and J. Norton.
A few hi-jinks are in order before J. Norton, V. Pratt, E. Coffineau, F. Troccoli, and P. Burton retire for the evening.

Spring Musical

For many weeks preceeding the Spring Musical, the strains of immortal classics ascend from the Music House. The Glee Club can also be heard rendering the songs of days gone by. Gradually, even to the untrained ear, a degree of perfection is achieved that amazes and pleases all. The many hours practice and rehearsals are all aimed for that night of May 23.

The Glee Club gives the opening number of the recital.

M. Finn, L. Lesser, and R. Ryan reveal their talents in playing the piano.

Sister Mary Immaculate, directs the Glee Club as its song adds to our evening.

The audience, which has grown from a small group of devoted parents, now includes many who are interested in the advancement of the performers. As the various performers successfully complete their pieces, the applause of the audience is very gratifying to the pupil, the teacher and the parents.

It can truly be said that the Spring Musicale is one of the most awaited and enjoyed occasions at Sacred Heart.

S. Ryan and R. Ryan acknowledge their justly deserved applause.

The hard work of A. Simpson, M. Hardy, D. Miller, C. Rapp, C. Shields and S. Ryan proved to be worth the trouble.

Orchestra Recital

After many hours of practice and hard work the Sacred Heart Academy Orchestra on April 11th presented its Fourth Annual Concert under the direction of Mr. Frank De Rubbo.

An enthralled audience heard the orchestra play renditions of such pieces as "Grandfather's Clock", "National Medley" and "La Comparsita". Besides these numbers there were several ensemble and solo selections. The String Section pleased everyone with "Polka Dot Parade", the clarinets with "Dancing Nymphs", the saxophones with "Largo" and the trumpets with "The Band Played On". Virginia Barry, Jacqueline Puls and Alberta Harrison delighted the audience with their solos.

L. Foster welcomes the audience to the Orchestra recital.

Mr. Rybka directs the Sacred Heart Orchestra.

P. Fay and V. Barry contribute to the evening entertainment.

More enjoyable solos are offered by A. Harrison and M. Rice.

Renditions on the clarinet are played by M. Hardy, M. McVey and A. Harrison.

The violin section, G. Boyle, V. Hart, C. Nardi, T. Trouve and M. Cullen play for us.

Mother-Daughter Communion Breakfast

Mrs. Marsala, K. Marsala, Mrs. Miele, M. Miele listen attentively to Father Molloy's talk on the necessity of a Catholic College education.

Mrs. Miele welcomes the gathering as S. Ryan and Mrs. Ryan look on.

Father Gillick offers the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

In Mary's month of May, the Mothers and daughters of Sacred Heart Academy unite with the Mother of us all and her Divine Son in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. How very fitting it is, indeed, that in this month of Our Lady we should hold the Annual Mother-Daughter Communion Breakfast, for we realize that it is through the intercession of Mary that Jesus Christ hears our invocations.

The Mass is held at 8:00 o'clock in the school auditorium, culminated by the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ. Following the breakfast at the Garden City Hotel, the Mothers and daughters share in the wisdom of Father's words.

R. Scott, E. Bockleman, S. Hart, K. Marsala, E. Rodgers, K. Keilman, B. Catanzara, E. Schramm, D. Horning, E. Scheibel, M. Guillan, Sister Alonzo chats with a small group.

J. Puls, C. Puls, B. Meehan, S. Probst, Mrs. Probst, J. Molloy and Mrs. Puls patiently wait for their breakfast.

K. Kelly, B. Kager, M. Goodwin, M. Mathews provide entertainment for the mothers and daughters.

M. McDonnell, A. Biggin, N. Lenihan, M. Lenihan and P. Stephens leave after an enjoyable breakfast.

May Crowning

One of the most beautiful and inspiring testimonials of our love for Mary is the May Crowning, which is held here at Sacred Heart in late May. The Queen, president of our Student Council, accompanied by her attendants, assisted the visiting clergy and our students, in taking part in the ceremony.

Last year this observance of Our Lady's eminence began with the living rosary prayed by the Seniors, during which, flowers were laid at Mary's feet to symbolize her virtues. More flowers were formed into a crown for the Blessed Mother. The coronation was followed by an appropriate talk by Reverend Aloysius Gillick, then climaxed by Benediction.

This day, long awaited and beautifully fulfilled was at an end, but in the hearts of the girls at Sacred Heart, it will long be remembered as one of the most impressive ceremonies in the school year.

May Queen Helen Burns, attended by S. Fitzpatrick, gives the opening address.

S. Fitzpatrick presents the ring to M. Aexel as Father Callahan, J. McAndrews and B. Murphy prepare the others.

Thousands of red and gold flowers provided the setting for the Ring Ceremony on June 8, the feast of the Sacred Heart. After an opening address by the Student Council President, a prayer to the Sacred Heart was recited by the Juniors. Father Callahan then blessed the rings and they were presented to the anxious girls.

As each one stepped up to receive her ring and later recited the Consecration to the Sacred Heart, the new "proud possessors" realized the deep significance of the Senior Rings.

Congratulated by H. Burns and T. Mahony the girls admire their rings.

J. Puls and J. Muller thank the Sacred Heart for their new rings.

C. Bory, C. Fanslow, B. Spurrier, and M. O'Regan proudly show their Senior Rings.

The long white line for which we had worked, and worried and waited for during four years at Sacred Heart.

Graduation

After four years filled with fond memories but plenty of hard work Graduation Day finally arrives. The day which as underclassmen we thought would never come is here with its paradoxes of happiness and sadness! We are happy in the realization that we have accomplished our goal and are out on our own but sad because we are leaving Sacred Heart, its understanding Sisters of St. Joseph and its wonderful girls.

As the first strains of the processional march are heard our minds drift back to our first day at Sacred Heart when we felt eager but also small and insignificant. Through our minds run hundreds of humorous and happy events which happened during the four years but all these thoughts are accompanied with overwhelming nostalgia. How we have changed spiritually, mentally and physically since our first days at Sacred Heart!

Looking down from the stage we see Mother and Dad who have been so loving and so generous to us. We see the Sisters, unselfish and kind, without whom we never would have been able to graduate. We feel the presence of all our classmates who have shared joys and sorrows and whom we may never see again.

All these things run through the minds of the graduates as we are together for the last time. High School days are the happiest days of all and ones on which will always be looked back on with pleasant remembrances.

Father Callahan presiding at our last big function!

Father Gillik ready to distribute our diplomas.

Brother Darby, a very familiar figure to Sacred Heart Girls.

The much coveted diploma is now our very own.

Our last walk together!

Kiss beneath the garden gate,
Kiss beneath the rose,
But the proper place to kiss a boy
Is right beneath the nose. - Kathy Barry

Dear Gail,

Best of Luck to a swell
pik!! Have fun in catching Lowell. Next year its your turn to walk over to my house to pick me up for school at ten after seven
See if you can round up
$45 for me.

Love ya!!! P.P
